Black Sons to Mothers M. Christopher Brown, James Earl Davis, 2000 Black Sons to Mothers is the critical site where African American male scholars explore the meanings and connections of the lives of black boys men This book offers literary scholarly and personal space to interrogate the seemingly elusive intersection of race and gender Each chapter in the book is offered in one of two voices one that speaks to teachers as cultural workers and one that represents individual transformation into the cultural space of mothering This book s intent is to both question black men s constructions as sons cultural offspring and to engage in the project of representing mothering as cultural work and specifically the role of black men in this work Because the discourse on the role performance of black boys men is steeped in the hegemonic rhetoric of traditional constructions of masculinity that discourse fails to sensibly represent and elaborate on the diversity and complexity of their lives and relations particularly in the academic enterprise As such Black Sons to Mothers attempts to recontextualize the discourse surrounding the cultural places where the identities of black boys men are shaped and explores how the politics and constructions of manhood are informed and enforced in school settings In Black Sons to Mothers the research subject of extrapolation is the oppressed and or marginalized group In opposition to deficit model inquiry the research on white males is not being applied to black boys men but the research on black boys men is being applied to all students The black male student is at the center of a discourse that is not about a pathology dysfunction at riskness or special education This book s discourse is epigenetic in that it advances a more complex understanding of schooling and cultural work This understanding is not solely about black boys men but about the cornerstone of cultural work un learning     Black Enterprise ,1999     Maternal Theory Andrea O'Reilly,2021-07-08 Theory on mothers mothering and motherhood has emerged as a distinct body of knowledge within Motherhood Studies and Feminist Theory more generally This collection The Second Edition of Maternal Theory Essential Readings introduces readers to this rich and diverse tradition of maternal theory Composed of 60 chapters the 2nd edition includes two sections the first with the classic texts by Adrienne Rich Nancy Chodorow Sara Ruddick Alice Walker Barbara Katz Rothman bell hooks Sharon Hays Patricia Hill Collins Audre Lorde Daphne de Marneffe Judith Warner Patrice diQinizio Susan Maushart and many more The second section includes thirty new chapters on vital and new topics including Trans Parenting Non Binary Parenting Queer Mothering Matricentric Feminism Normative Motherhood Maternal Subjectivity Maternal Narratology Maternal Ambivalence Maternal Regret Monstrous Mothers The Migrant Maternal Reproductive Justice Feminist Mothering Feminist Fathering Indigenous Mothering The Digital Maternal The Opt Out Revolution Black Motherhoods Motherlines The Motherhood Memoir Pandemic Mothering and many more Maternal Theory is essential reading for anyone interested in motherhood as experience ideology and identity
