Excerpt from The Sacred Classics or Cabinet Library of Divinity Vol 21 IT is an error common to some who believe them selves lovers of Poetry with many who disregard and perhaps despise it that the purpose of this department of literature is merely to afford an elegant pastime or to supply a pleasing but aimless excitement This mistake so fatal to the just influence of some of the noblest efforts of the human mind we may expect to find prevailing in an age distinguished at once by the love of pleasure and an eager devotion to the affairs of life The delicate slaves of luxury contented with the stimulus which animated verse applies to the imagination and the edge it imparts to sensibility willingly rest here in their appreciation of its worth the enjoyment and still more the application of what lies beyond demands an exertion of the higher faculties of the mind to which they are unaccustomed and which they therefore decline with disgust The active worldly man on the other hand About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the
