Sacred Heart Legacy:

Legacy of a Century Sally Kittredge Evans Reeves,1987 The Sacred Heart Legacy Aubrey J. Lynch,2005-07-01 The Sacred Heart Legacy tells the history of the first African American Catholic congregation in the State of Michigan It traces the origins of this congregation to the black Catholics of early Christianity and shows how this valiant group of people became the Sacred Heart parishioners how they shook off the horror of US slavery and then progressed through the tumultuous years of segregation and disenfranchisement to the present day It shows how the congregation began in the basement of St Mary s School acquired safe haven at St Peter Claver Church and then survived numerous challenges to its existence to arrive at a position of renown and influence as the Sacred Heart Parish in modern day Detroit The parishioners interviewed in 2004 tell in their own words what membership in the parish means to them Their descriptions amount to a Greek Chorus whose voices support the conclusions that the author draws from his background as an organization psychologist The book examines the role of the Church as a bureaucracy concerned about its temporal existence which must balance the demands of its several constituencies just as any other large multinational organization must do It also examines the role of the priest as a leader who must choose between organizational expediency and the Word of God in ministering to his flock The book is most of all a celebration of the parishioners who have defied all odds to build themselves into a highly competent community of believers who are confident in their ability to carry on regardless of what the future holds The Sacred Heart Legacy is ultimately intended to be a model for those who would combat the pernicious effects of the quest for wealth and power by adhering to the Word while collaborating with the disenfranchised of all races and creeds The Historic Legacy of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Raywood, Texas Elbann Boulard-Burrell,2020 The Sacred Heart Legacy , Living the Legacy Marilyn Thordarson,Charlene Clark,Betty Harrington,Virginia Hutton,Pam White,2008
