For Love of the Sacred Awe Rami Elias Kremesti, 2021-12-31 For Love of the Sacred Awe is about a new way or the correct way of looking at beauty in the world When you realize that this creation of which we are part is a work of Love of a highly intelligent Loving Being which believers call God or Jhwh or Shiva then you experience the sacred awe Indeed this is the very definition of beauty something that has been created out of love There are a lot of photographers and artists out there with lost souls They try to be creative and odd to the point of being silly and superfluous all because they have not realized the ultimate truth there is a loving creator As a real artist or photographer you are participating in the creative process or witnessing and capturing the beauty of the Creation There is a paradigm shift that happens when you photograph a nude woman with the eyes of a Believer vs a lustful man seeking self satisfaction And God knows we have all experienced that strong physical pull of the lower chakras When you look at the fascinating beauty and symbiosis that is part of Nature and all its creatures and realize that all this was created for us human beings the Crown of Creation you become humble too the knowledge behind it is too great to fathom Living in such a higher spiritual state must be the goal of all human endeavour because anything less is just unfulfilled potential and misery Rami Elias Kremesti was born in Beirut Lebanon in December 1974 He came into the world in Phoenician Canaan the ancient Land of Milk and Honey where soon after his birth the Lebanese civil war broke out Growing up in a society wrecked by violence hate and fear the three blind children of ignorance Rami was pushed to seek the Truth from a very young age The physical fear of bombs creates in sensitive people as Kazantzakis puts it a disgust of superficial and fake things His first love was Chemistry it was the truth of the materialistic world to him But his escape was the Mediterranean Sea where he went fishing as a teen There were no spiritual role models or guides to inspire him in Lebanon So he fell for Nietzsche and the Existentialists However Nihilism was unsatisfactory and men of science were a disappointment to him so he kept on seeking and eventually discovered the poetry of Rumi So he started to see beauty in the world and experience the Sacred Awe That is when he picked up a camera and started taking photos Rami s exile away from his homeland over the years brought him in contact with all kinds of people from all over the world lots of savages or barbarians He fell in love experienced joy and depression and heart break innocently All this was preparing him for the Ultimate Love in his Life Love of the Creator or as the Sufis call

Page,2013-11-01 2014 marks Bangarra Dance Theatre's twenty fifth year. Clan honours this milestone and those people who have inspired Bangarra over the years. By having its feet in both worlds of old and modern, Bangarra creates contemporary theatrical experiences that are influenced by timeless stories and customs. The land shapes the people, the people shape the language, the language shapes the songs and the songs then determine the dance and the spirit flows through it all. This is the Bangarra Dance Theatre. Dancers communicate so profoundly with the mere flex of a foot or hand, a shift of focus, the roll of a head, the transfer of weight within their body. As the dancers move in and out of the space and light, there is a momentum and energy even with the smallest of steps. Greg Barrett and Stephen Page, in a unique collaboration, have beautifully and skilfully given shape to and recorded these magical ephemeral moments. Clan's intimate and dramatic collection of photographs captures the personal, the professional and the sacred moments of artistic expression. Buried Dreams Lindsey R.

Dennis,2018-09-18 Finding hope when faced with the devastating loss of your most precious dreams. At 20 weeks pregnant, Lindsey Dennis and her husband were told the child she was carrying would not live due to a fatal diagnosis. Later, in another stunning blow, they were told the same news with her second pregnancy. They chose to celebrate both lives alongside a community, both local and online, of hundreds of thousands, as she carried each child to term, only to bury them 14 months apart from each other. Through the crushing of their hopes and dreams, they came to know the kind of resurrection hope that can rise from the grave. This experience of infant loss revealed to Dennis how sorrow and suffering are instruments in the hands of God to forge in us a greater joy and hope than one can ever know. This kind of joy can only be discovered when we walk through the deep pain of burying our most precious dreams. Buried Dreams offers an uplifting perspective, sharing how devastating loss of personal dreams can give way to unimaginable hope and how death can give way to life. Framing her own story of staggering loss and soaring hope with biblical perspective, Dennis highlights that we can never plan for the unexpected turns of this life that sometimes lead to great personal suffering, but we can reach for the One who is there with us in the loss. Product Features Shares how unrealized dreams can give way to unimaginable hope. Shows how sorrow and suffering are instruments in the hands of God. Rekindles hope for those who have experienced loss. 7 Days in Myanmar

,2014 Largely isolated from the world for more than four decades, Myanmar has made a remarkable return to the global stage following a political transformation that represents a watershed moment in the country's history. Now, for the first time ever, the rich culture, stunning landscapes and diverse peoples of the country are presented in a unique visual time capsule. Here is the new Myanmar as seen over a single week by a team of thirty famous photographers from eleven different countries. Their mission: To capture the life and spirit of Myanmar from every angle, in every corner of the country. Through the downtown streets of Yangon and the handicraft centres of Mandalay, above the temple-dotted plains of Bagan and on the waters of Inle Lake, inside border towns and hilltribe villages and all the way to the furthest reaches of the north and south.
