The Cambridge Companion to Twentieth-Century British and Irish Women's Poetry Jane Dowson, 2011-03-17 This Companion provides new ways of reading a wide range of influential women's poetry. Leading international scholars offer insights on a century of writers drawing out the special function of poetry and the poets' use of language whether it is concerned with the relationship between verbal and visual art, experimental poetics, war landscape history, cultural identity or confessional lyrics. Collectively the chapters cover well established and less familiar poets from Edith Sitwell and Mina Loy through Stevie Smith, Sylvia Plath and Elizabeth Jennings to Anne Stevenson, Eavan Boland and Jo Shapcott. They also include poets at the forefront of poetry trends such as Liz Lochhead, Jackie Kay, Patience Agbabi, Caroline Bergvall, Medbh McGuckian and Carol Ann Duffy. With a chronology and guide to further reading, this book is aimed at students and poetry enthusiasts wanting to deepen their knowledge of some of the finest modern poets. Shakespeare's Sonnets, The Private Life of William Shakespeare Lena Cowen Orlin, 2021-08-26 A new biography of William Shakespeare that explores his private life in Stratford-upon-Avon, his personal aspirations, his self-determination and his relations with the members of his family and his neighbours. The Private Life of William Shakespeare tells the story of Shakespeare in Stratford as a family man. The book offers close readings of key documents associated with Shakespeare and develops a contextual understanding of the genres from which these documents emerge. It reconsiders clusters of evidence that have been held to prove some persistent biographical fables. It also shows how the histories of some of Shakespeare's neighbours illuminate aspects of his own life. Throughout we encounter a Shakespeare who consciously and with purpose designed his life. Having witnessed the business failures of his merchant father, he determined not to follow his father's model. His early wedding freed him from craft training to pursue a literary career. His wife's work and probably the assistance of his parents and brothers enabled him to make the first of the property purchases that grounded his life as a gentleman. With his will, he provided for both his daughters in ways that were suitable to their circumstances. Anne Shakespeare was already protected by dower rights in the houses and lands he had acquired. His funerary monument suggests that the man of small Latin and less Greek in fact had some experience of an Oxford education. Evidences are that he commissioned the monument himself. Profiling Shakespeare Marjorie Garber, 2008-03-25 The title of this collection Profiling Shakespeare is meant strongly in its double sense. These essays show the outline of a Shakespeare rather different from the man sought by biographers from his time to our own. They also show the effects, the ephemera, the clues and cues, welcome and unwelcome, out of which Shakespeare's admirers and dedicated scholars have pieced together a vision of the playwright, whether as sage, psychologist, lover, theatrical entrepreneur or moral authority. This collection brings together classic pieces, hard to find, chapters and two new essays. Here Garber has produced a book at once serious and highly readable ranging broadly across time periods early modern to postmodern and touching upon both high and popular culture

Historicism, Psychoanalysis, and Early Modern Culture Carla Mazzio, Douglas Trevor, 2013-10-28 First published in 2000 Did people in early modern Europe have a concept of an inner self Carla Mazzio and Douglas Trevor have brought together an outstanding group of literary cultural and history scholars to answer this intriguing question Through a synthesis of historicism and psychoanalytic criticism the contributors explore the complicated nuanced and often surprising union of history and subjectivity in Europe centuries before psychoanalytic theory Addressing such topics as fetishes and Renaissances the cartographic unconscious and the topographic imaginary these essays move beyond the strict boundaries of historicism and psychoanalysis to carve out new histories of interiority in early modern Europe

Choosing the Best Mattress: An Experiment in Testing Whether Individuals Choose a Bed That Leads to Improved Sleep Sean O. Hogan, Jack D. Edinger, Gayle S. Bieler, Andrew D. Krystal, 2011-08-07 A comfortable mattress is said to be an essential ingredient in a good night's sleep but we have little understanding of the effects of sleep surface on sleep outcomes such as daytime drowsiness or energy Most studies devoted to testing the effects of sleep surface on sleep have been hampered by methodological shortcomings these include having small numbers of subjects and evaluating a narrow array of bedding systems We hypothesized that motion and self reported measures of sleep quality and outcomes would demonstrate that the optimal mattress would differ from person to person We hypothesized that individuals would be able to select one mattress from among several under showroom circumstances that would lead to optimal rest We find that optimal mattress firmness varies among individuals and is reflected at least to a degree by overnight motion When allowed to test mattresses in a typical showroom experience individuals choose a mattress that does not minimize overnight motion and maximize perceived sleep quality This suggests that they may not be receiving the health benefits that come from optimal rest Therefore both manufacturers and sleep scientists could improve sleep outcomes by testing ways to help consumers select a mattress Shakespeare and Biography Katherine Scheil, Graham Holderness, 2020-09-23 From Shakespeare's religion to his wife to his competitors in the world of early modern theatre biographers have approached the question of the Bard's life from numerous angles Shakespeare Biography offers a fresh look at the biographical questions connected with the famous playwright's life through essays and reflections written by prominent international scholars and biographers Shakespeare Unbound René Weis, 2013-10-22 At last a key that unlocks the secrets of Shakespeare's life Intimacies with Southampton and Marlowe entanglements in London with the elusive dark lady the probable fathering of an illegitimate son these are among the mysteries of Shakespeare's rich and turbulent life that have proven tantalizingly obscure Despite an avalanche of recent scholarship Ren Weis an acknowledged authority on the Elizabethan period believes the links between the bard's life and the poems and plays have been largely ignored Armed with a wealth of new archival research and his own highly regarded interpretations of the literature the author finds provocative parallels between Shakespeare's early experiences in the bustling market town of Stratford including a dangerous poaching incident and contacts with underground Catholics and the plays Breaking with tradition Weis reveals that it is the plays and poems themselves that contain the richest seam of clues about the details of Shakespeare's personal life at home in Stratford and in the shadowy precincts of theatrical London details of a code unbroken for four hundred years The Everything Shakespeare Book Cork Milner, 2008-05-01 Without question William Shakespeare is the most celebrated and quoted writer of all time Whether you're a long time fan or new to his writing The Everything Shakespeare Book 2nd Edition will help you fully appreciate and understand Shakespeare's works In everyday language this book covers everything from All's Well that Ends Well to The Winter's Tale and every play and sonnet in between featuring Famous quotations Background information on Shakespeare's life and times An in depth look at the controversy over the authorship of the works An Elizabethan English lesson Whether you're doing research for a school paper or simply building your literary knowledge this book is the perfect introduction to the world and works of The Bard of Avon Cork Millner is a Shakespeare scholar playwright and author of several books including To Be or Not To Be Shakespeare He teaches writing at the University of California and Santa Barbara City College and has been on the literary staff for the prestigious Santa Barbara Writer's Conference for 20 years He lives in Carpinteria CA The Dial , 1905
