Second Wife and Other Stories from China Rhona Baptiste, 2001 In this collection of short stories Rhona Baptiste describes her experiences in China since coming to teach at a Junior Teachers College in Guangzhou Cover I Love Dollars and Other Stories of China Wen Zhu, 2007 In five richly imaginative novellas and a short story Zhu Wen depicts the violence chaos and dark comedy of China in the post Mao era A frank reflection of the seamier side of his nation s increasingly capitalist society Zhu Wen s fiction offers an audaciously plainspoken account of the often hedonistic individualism that is feverishly taking root Set against the mundane landscapes of contemporary China a worn Yangtze River vessel cheap diners a failing factory a for profit hospital operating by dated socialist norms Zhu Wen s stories zoom in on the often tragicomic minutiae of everyday life in this fast changing country With subjects ranging from provincial mafiosi to nightmarish families and oppressed factory workers his claustrophobic narratives depict a spiritually bankrupt society periodically rocked by spasms of uncontrolled violence For example I Love Dollars a story about casual sex in a provincial city whose caustic portrayal of numb disillusionment and cynicism caused an immediate sensation in the Chinese literary establishment when it was first published The novella s loose colloquial voice and sharp focus on the indignity and iniquity of a society trapped between communism and capitalism showcase Zhu Wen s exceptional ability to make literary sense of the bizarre ideologically confused amalgam that is contemporary China Julia Lovell s fluent translation deftly reproduces Zhu Wen s wry sense of humor and powerful command of detail and atmosphere The first book length publication of Zhu Wen s fiction in English I Love Dollars and Other Stories of China offers readers access to a trailblazing author and marks a major contribution to Chinese literature in English Him with His Foot in His Mouth and Other Stories Saul Bellow, 1998 This dazzling collection of shorter fiction describes a series of self awakenings a suburban divorcee deciding among lovers a celebrity drawn into his cousin s life of crime a father remembering bygone Chicago an artist and an academic awaiting extradition for some unnamed offense Bird Talk and Other Stories by Xu Xu Xu Xu, 2020-05-19 Introducing the works of a major Chinese writer liberal cosmopolitan and lyrically exotic once banned but now embraced and newly discovered in the West Xu Xu 1908 1980 was one of the most widely read Chinese authors of the 1930s to 1960s His popular urban gothic tales his exotic spy fiction and his quasi existentialist love stories full of nostalgia and melancholy offer today s readers an unusual glimpse into China s turbulent twentieth century These translations spanning a period of some thirty years from 1937 until 1965 bring to life some of Xu Xu s most representative short fictions from prewar Shanghai and postwar Hong Kong and Taiwan The Afterword illustrates that Xu Xu s idealistic tendencies in defiance of the politicization of art exemplify his affinity with European romanticism and link his work to a global literary modernity Slow Boat to China and Other Stories Kim Chew Ng, 2016-03-01 Dream and Swine and Aurora Deep in the Rubber Forest Fish Bones Allah s Will Monkey Butts Fire and Dangerous Things Ng Kim Chew s stories are raw rural and rich with the traditions of his native Malaysia They are also full of humor and spirit demonstrating a deep appreciation for human ingenuity in the face of poverty oppression and exile Ng creatively captures the riot of cultures that roughly coexist on the Malay Peninsula and its surrounding archipelago Their interplay is heightened by the encroaching forces of globalization which bring new opportunities for cultural experimentation but also an added dimension of alienation In prose that is intimate and atmospheric these sensitively crafted resonant stories depict the struggles of individuals torn between their ancestral and adoptive homes communities pressured by violence and minority Malaysian Chinese in dynamic tension with the Islamic Malay majority Told through relatable characters Ng s tales show why he has become a leading Malaysian writer of Chinese fiction representing in mood voice and rhythm the dislocation of a people and a country in transition      Liyuanxi - Chinese 'Pear Garden Theatre' Josh Stenberg,2022-11-17

E. Mungello, 2023-07-14 In the twentieth century China underwent a monumental dynastic change and was transformed from an outmoded monarchy into a modern communist state This century of revolutionary change was marked by political upheaval and social chaos It was a period in which Chinese began to go abroad to study and conduct business while foreigners came to China for economic opportunity and adventure In the process Chinese and foreigners began to meet and form romantic relationships These love affairs fengliu yunshi are notable because they coincided with the last phase of Western imperialism including its lingering racial prejudices and even laws against interracial sexual relationships Conversely in China there were periodic outbreaks of hostility and violence against foreigners This book explores the interracial relationships of twenty two people who transcended these obstacles to cross color lines and fall in love Family and Kinship in Chinese Society Ai-li S. Chin, Maurice Freedman, Joint Committee on Contemporary China. Subcommittee on Research on Chinese Society, 1970 Includes bibliographical references The Sacred Books of China, 1885 Mr. Straight Arrow Jeremy Treglown, 2019-04-23 A monumental reevaluation of the career of John Hersey the author of Hiroshima Few are the books with as immediate an impact and as enduring a legacy as John Hersey's Hiroshima First published as an entire issue of The New Yorker in 1946 it was serialized in newspapers the world over and has never gone out of print By conveying plainly the experiences of six survivors of the 1945 atomic bombing and its aftermath Hersey brought to light the magnitude of nuclear war And in his adoption of novelistic techniques he prefigured the conventions of New Journalism But how did Hersey who was not Japanese not an eyewitness not a scientist come to be the first person to communicate the experience to a global audience In Mr Straight Arrow Jeremy Treglown answers that question and shows that Hiroshima was not an aberration but was emblematic of the author's lifework By the time of Hiroshima's publication Hersey was already a famed war writer and had won a Pulitzer Prize for Fiction He continued to publish journalism of immediate and pressing moral concern his reporting from the Freedom Summer and his exposés of the Detroit riots resonate all too loudly today But his obsessive doubts over the value of his work never ceased Mr Straight Arrow is an intimate exacting study of the achievements and contradictions of Hersey's career which reveals the powers of a writer tirelessly committed to truth and social change The Rise and Fall of the House of Bo John Garnaut, 2012-11-08 The Rise and Fall of the House of Bo is a shocking and revelatory exposé of China's most controversial statesman Bo Xilai by journalist John

Garnaut available exclusively as a digital only Penguin Special When news of the murder trial of prominent Communist Party leader Bo Xilai's wife reached Western attention it was apparent that as with many events in the secretive upper echelons of Chinese politics there was more to the story Now as the Party's 18th National Congress oversees the biggest leadership transition in decades and installs the Bo family's long time rival Xi Jinping as president China's rulers are finding it increasingly difficult to keep their poisonous internal divisions behind closed doors Bo Xilai's breathtaking fall from grace is an extraordinary tale of excess murder defection political purges and ideological clashes going back to Mao himself as the princeling sons of the revolutionary heroes ascend to control of the Party China watcher John Garnaut examines how Bo's stellar rise through the ranks troubled his more reformist peers as he revived anti capitalist roader sentiment even while his family and associates enjoyed the more open economy's opportunities Amid fears his imminent elevation to the powerful Standing Committee was leading China towards another destructive Cultural Revolution have his opponents seized their chance to destroy Bo and what he stood for The trigger was his wife Gu Kailai's apparently paranoid murder of an English family friend which exposed the corruption and brutality of Bo's outwardly successful administration of the massive city of Chongqing It also led to the one of the highest level attempted defections in Communist China's history when Bo's right hand man police chief Wang Lijun tried to escape the ruins of his sponsor's reputation Garnaut explains how this incredible glimpse into the very personal power struggles within the CCP exposes the myth of the unified one party state With China approaching super power status today's leadership shuffle may set the tone for international relations for decades Here Garnaut reveals a particularly Chinese spin on the old adage that the personal is political His insight is unique and well applied to this extraordinary intergenerational set of events that Hollywood couldn't dream up if it tried ABC Sydney John Garnaut is China correspondent for the Sydney Morning Herald and The Age in the Fairfax Media stable and also writes for Foreign Policy magazine He joined Fairfax in 2002 as an economics journalist after working as a commercial lawyer His work on China has been recognised with several awards including the 2009 Walkley Award for Scoop of the Year for reporting the detention of Australian Rio Tinto executive Stern Hu John lived in Beijing for two years in the 1980s while his father was posted as the Australian ambassador and returned there with his wife and children in 2007

Reading China [electronic resource] Daria Berg, 2007 This volume develops a new style of reading Chinese sources as pioneered in Chinese Studies by Professor Glen Dudbridge providing fascinating new insights into Chinese literature history and popular culture The analysis of self fashioning representation and political propaganda sheds new light on Chinese perceptions of the world Gender and the South China Miracle Ching Kwan Lee, 2023-04-28 Both Yuk ling a busy Hong Kong mother of two and Chi ying a young single woman from a remote village in northern China work in electronics factories owned by the same foreign corporation manufacturing identical electronic components After a decade of job growth and increasing foreign investment in Hong Kong and South China both women are also participating in the spectacular economic transformation that has come to be called the South China miracle Yet as Ching Kwan Lee demonstrates in her unique and fascinating study of women workers on either side of the Chinese Hong Kong border the working lives and factory cultures of these women are vastly different In this rich comparative ethnography Lee describes how two radically different factory cultures have emerged from a period of profound economic change In Hong Kong matron workers remain in factories for decades In Guangdong a seemingly endless number of young maiden workers travel to the south from northern provinces following the promise of higher wages Whereas the women in Hong Kong participate in a management system characterized by familial hegemony the young women in Guangdong find an internal system of power based on regional politics and kin connections or localistic despotism Having worked side by side with these women on the floors of both factories Lee concludes that it is primarily the differences in the gender politics of the two labor markets that determine the culture of each factory Posing an ambitious challenge to sociological theories that reduce labor politics to pure economics or state power structures Lee argues that gender plays a crucial role in the cultures and management strategies of factories that rely heavily on women workers This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1999 Both Yuk ling a busy Hong Kong mother of two and Chi ying a young single woman from a remote village in northern China work in electronics factories owned by the same foreign corporation manufacturing identical electronic components After a decade o
