Caplin, 2000-12-28 Building on ideas first advanced by Arnold Schoenberg and later developed by Erwin Ratz this book introduces a new theory of form for instrumental music in the classical style The theory provides a broad set of principles and a comprehensive methodology for the analysis of classical form from individual ideas phrases and themes to the large scale organization of complete movements It emphasizes the notion of formal function that is the specific role a given formal unit plays in the structural organization of a classical work      Catalogue of Printed Music in the Library of the Royal College of Music, London Royal College of Music (Great Britain), William Barclay Squire, 1909      A Descriptive Catalogue of the Music of Charles Ives James B. Sinclair, 1999-01-01 This catalogue of the music of Charles Ives contains 728 entries covering all of the prolific composer s works James Sinclair s book presents information produced by recent Ives scholarship and generous commentary on each of Ives's compositions. It completes the work begun by musicologist John Kirkpatrick in 1955 when Ives's music manuscripts were deposited in the Yale Music Library. Ives's works are arranged alphabetically by title within genres. Whenever possible, each entry includes the main title and any other titles the composer may have used, the forces required, the duration, headings of movements, publication history, citation of the first known performance and first recording, the derivation of the work, listing music on which it may be modeled or from which it may borrow material, the principal literature treating the piece, and commentary on these and other matters. The catalogue also provides musical incipits for all Ives's extant works, seven appendixes covering his work lists, Quality Photo lists, his songbooks, a chronology of his life, recordings made by Ives and his private publications and commercial publishers, three concordances, and four extensive indexes: addresses, names, titles, and musical borrowings. Three duos concertants for two violins, op. 57 Charles Bériot, 1909
