Secret Waters Womens Poetry:

Secret Waters Linda C. Brown, 1997 Linda Brown's years of listening to other people's stories serve her well in telling her mother's story beyond the facts of Alzheimer's. She also bears witness to the men and other women who have learned a new rhythm for their days. We recognize ourselves standing just beyond this walled garden. Linda Brown invites us into the corridors of nursing homes. She doesn't gloss over the isolation of the sick and the dying but tells the larger stories of people she has come to know in her weekly visits to feed a mother who waters plastic flowers who puts on three blouses at a time. Brown invites us to step into secret waters. Her vision is personal. Men and women have names and stories that make us laugh, wince, and wink sometimes all at the same time. We know these stories. This is our family. That is the secret. Help for the Caring Brenda Parris Sibley, 2002 This much needed bibliography and filmography brings together lists of books about Alzheimer's and caregiving including biographies, poetry, and even fiction as well as in instructional and dramatic films.

Romantic Women Poets, 1788-1848 Andrew Ashfield, 1998 In this new volume Andrew Ashfield illustrates how women extended the horizons of Romanticism by their insistent engagement with social issues such as slavery, child labor, and women workers. His previous volume Romantic Women Poets 1770-1838 explored how women poets made important contributions to major areas of Romanticism such as landscape and seascape. Together these two volumes add new dimensions to the study of Romanticism by showing how the solitary meditation by the sea developed concurrently with major social concerns. Ashfield exposes a much more complicated relationship between the self and society than has previously prevailed in our assessments of Romanticism. Star-flowers, a Poem of the Woman's Mystery Thomas Lake Harris, 1886 Gendered Dynamics in Latin Love Poetry Ronnie Ancona, Ellen Greene, 2005-11-18 In recent decades Latin love poetry has become a significant site for feminist and other literary critics studying conceptions of gender and sexuality in ancient Roman culture. This new volume, the first to focus specifically on gender dynamics in Latin love poetry, moves beyond the polarized critical positions that argue that this poetry either confirms traditional gender roles or subverts them. Rather, the essays in the collection explore the ways in which Latin erotic texts can have both effects, shifting power back and forth between male and female. If there is one conclusion that emerges, it is that the dynamics of gender in Latin amatory poetry do not map in any single way onto the cultural and historical norms of Roman society. In fact, as several essays show, there is a dialectical relationship between this poetry and Roman cultural practices. By complicating the views of gender dynamics in Latin love poetry, this exciting new scholarship will stimulate further debates in classical studies and literary criticism with its fresh perspectives. Modern Scottish Women Poets Dorothy McMillan, 2010-07-01 Edited and Introduced by Dorothy McMillan and Michel Byrne. The Secrets of an Aborted Decolonisation Carlson Anyangwe, 2010-10-08 A remarkable feature of the collapse of the British Empire is that the British departed from almost every single one of their colonial territories invariably leaving behind a messy situation and an agenda of serious problems that in most cases still haunt those territories to this day One such territory is the Southern British Cameroons There the British Government took the official view that the territory and its people were expendable It opposed for selfish economic reasons sovereign statehood for the territory in clear violation of the UN Charter and the norm of self determination It transferred the Southern Cameroons to a new colonial overlord and hurriedly left the territory The British Governments bad faith duplicity deception wheeling and dealing and betrayal of the people of the Southern Cameroons is incredible and defies good sense Ample evidence of this is provided by the declassified documents in this book Among the material are treaties concluded by Britain with Southern Cameroons coastal Kings and Chiefs and the boundary treaties of the Southern Cameroons treaties defining the frontiers with Nigeria to the west and the frontier with Cameroun Republic to the east The book contains documents that attest to the Southern Cameroons as a fully self governing country ready for sovereign statehood These include debates in the Southern Cameroons House of Assembly and the various Constitutions of the Southern Cameroons The book also reproduces British declassified documents on the Southern Cameroons covering the three critical years from 1959 to 1961 documents which speak to the inglorious stewardship of Great Britain in the Southern Cameroons This book removes lingering doubts in some quarters that the people of the Southern Cameroons were cheated of independence Its contents are further evidence of their inalienable right and sacred duty to assert their independence No one who reads this book can possibly be indifferent to the just struggle of the Southern Cameroons for sovereign statehood
