Krawczyk-Żywko, 2024-03-22 In versus narratives Sherlock Holmes is fighting or otherwise engaging Jack the Ripper These texts pit the archetypal detective against the archetypal serial killer using established formulas as well as new narrative and generic features a combination that results in their mass appeal among authors and audiences alike The list of primary sources includes 120 titles novels short stories plays fanfiction Grand Game studies movies TV shows video and board games which are treated as a dialogic network of transfictional and transmedial texts This study unpacks the versus corpus in its media dispersal by analysing Sherlock Holmes and Jack the Ripper as serial figures and culture texts emphasising the increasing palimpsestousness of the former and the multidirectional polymorphousness of the latter and tracing the overlapping Doylean culture text It also addresses the way character constellations are represented negotiated and fed back into the versus network contextualising them within the coalescence of fact and fiction Gothic and crime fiction frames cultural memory neo Victorianism and biofiction The Mysterious Cases of Martin Hewitt Arthur Morrison, 2022-11-13 In The Mysterious Cases of Martin Hewitt Arthur Morrison crafts a compelling collection of detective stories that delve into the intricacies of human nature and the art of deduction Written in the late Victorian era this anthology showcases Morrison s keen observational prowess and his ability to weave intricate narratives that blend suspense with social commentary The literary style is characterized by a meticulous attention to detail with a focus on atmosphere and character development mirroring the emerging trends of the detective genre during the time especially the influence of contemporaries like Arthur Conan Doyle Arthur Morrison an English author and journalist was deeply influenced by the post industrial societal changes of his time His own experiences in various walks of life coupled with a fascination for the darker aspects of urban existence fueled his literary endeavors Morrison's unique perspective informed by both realism and the gothic tradition lends a profound depth to his portrayal of crime and justice in Victorian London This book is a must read for fans of classic detective fiction and those intrigued by the psychological dimensions of crime Morrison's sharp wit and insightful commentary on Victorian society ensure that modern readers will find relevance in his tales making The Mysterious Cases of Martin Hewitt an essential addition to the canon of crime literature In Lady Audley's Shadow Saverio Tomaiuolo, 2010-10-05 This book is devoted to Mary Elizabeth Braddon's complex relationship with the three main Victorian literary genres the Gothic the Detective and the Realist novel Using Braddon's bestselling sensation fiction Lady Audley's Secret as a paradigmatic novel and as a haunting textual presence across her literary career this study provides a fertile critical reading of a wide range of Braddon's novels and short stories Through an analysis of Braddon's negotiations with Victorian narrative ideological and cultural issues this monograph offers readers a refreshing view of gender female identity and subjectivity the treatment of insanity questions related to technology and progress the impact of evolutionism and Darwinism the intersemiotic dialogue between pictorial art and novel writing the role of the female writer in the new literary market and the changing notion of capital in an increasingly fluid social context Braddon's manipulation of Victorian literary codes and conventions proves that she was something more than a mere sensation writer and that her primary role in the nineteenth century literary scene has to be reaffirmed Drawing on a wide range of textual materials and literary sources the book foregrounds Braddon's constant and sometimes ambivalent dialogue with her times and with ours as well Secrecy and Disclosure in Victorian Fiction Leila Silvana May, 2016-07-15 Why were the Victorians more fascinated with secrecy than people of other periods What is the function of secrets in Victorian fiction and in the society depicted how does it differ from that of other periods and how did readers of Victorian fiction respond to the secrecy they encountered These are some of the questions Leila May poses in her study of the dynamics of secrecy and disclosure in fiction from Queen Victoria's coronation to the century's end May argues that the works of writers such as Charlotte Bront William Makepeace Thackeray Mary Elizabeth Braddon Edward Bulwer Lytton and Arthur Conan Doyle reflect a distinctly Victorian obsession with the veiling and unveiling of information She argues that there are two opposing vectors in Victorian culture concerning secrecy and subjectivity one presupposing a form of radical Cartesian selfhood always remaining a secret to other selves and another showing that nothing can be hidden from the trained eye May calls the relation between these clashing tendencies the dialectics of secrecy and disclosure May s theories of secrecy and disclosure are informed by the work of twentieth century social scientists. She emphasizes Georg Simmel's thesis that sociality and subjectivity are impossible without secrecy and Erving Goffman's claim that sociality can be understood in terms of performativity the presentation of the self in everyday life and his revelation that performance always involves disguise hence secrecy May s study offers convincing evidence that secrecy and duplicity in contrast to the Victorian period's emphasis on honesty and earnestness emerged in response to the social pressures of class gender monarchy and empire and were key factors in producing both the subjectivity and the sociality that we now recognize as Victorian Case of the Bleus: A Cheese Shop Mystery Korina Moss, 2023-09-26 What in the bleu blazes is happening in Yarrow Glen now An Agatha Nominee for Best Contemporary Mystery Novel Cheesemongers from across the Northwest have come to the Sonoma Valley for the Northwest Cheese Invitational As owner of the local cheese shop Curds Whey Willa Bauer loves it The event showcases custom cheese creations and it s the perfect time to gather with old colleagues to honor her former boss the late and grate cheese legend Max Dumas He was famous for journeying into the wild bleu yonder to where he aged his award winning custom Church Bleu Only Max knew the recipe and location to his beloved cheese and many are eager to have these revealed at his will reading But instead of naming someone to inherit his cheese and its secrets Max stuns everyone with one cryptic clue When a fellow cheesemonger dies under mysterious circumstances the woman they all thought would get the secrets to Max s prized possession everyone falls under suspicion Willa adores Church Bleu as much as the next cheese connoisseur but it s not to die for Is a killer trying to get away with murder and the cheese The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher s Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher s death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction Mystery Fanfare Michael L.
