Secret Knowledge Rediscovering The Lost Techniques Of The Old Masters:

Secret Knowledge David Hockney, 2001 Come with David Hockney on a journey as he rewrites the story of how the masterpieces of Western art were created It was after a chance observation in London's National Gallery that Hockney became gripped by a desire to find out how the artists of the past managed to depict the world so accurately and vividly As a painter constantly faced with similar technical problems he asked himself How did they do this He set aside his brushes stopped painting and for the next two years sacrificed his own time as an artist to follow this mystery trail obsessively tracking down the hidden secrets of the Old Masters Now Hockney recounts the story of his quest as it unfolded He explains how he uncovered piece after piece of scientific and visual evidence each one yielding further revelations about the past Hundreds of paintings and drawings among them the best known and best loved works in the history of Western art are reproduced and accompanied by Hockney's close passionate and accessible descriptions His own photographs and drawing illustrate the various methods used by past artists to capture accurate likenesses and present the results they would have achieved In addition extracts from the many historical and modern documents that he uncovered offer further intriguing evidence while correspondence between him and an array of international experts provides an exciting account of the remarkable story as it happened BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Secret Knowledge (New and Expanded Edition) David Hockney, 2006-10-05 Taking a look at the techniques of the Old Masters hundreds of paintings are reproduced to show how artists would have used the technology available to them in rendering their subjects 400 color illustrations David Hockney David Hockney, Sarah Howgate, Barbara Stern Shapiro, Mark Glazebrook, Marco Livingstone, Edmund White, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, National portrait gallery (Londres)., 2006-01-01 David Hockney b 1937 is one of the most significant artists exploring and pushing the boundaries of figurative art today Hockney has been engaged with portraiture since his teenage years when he painted Portrait of My Father 1955 and his self portraits and depictions of family lovers and friends represent an intimate visual diary of the artist's life This beautifully illustrated book examines Hockney's portraits in all media painting drawing photography and prints and has been produced in close collaboration with the artist Featured subjects include members of Hockney's family and private circle as well as portraits of such artists and cultural figures as Lucian Freud Francesco Clemente R B Kitaj Helmet Newton Lawrence Weschler and W H Auden The authors reveal how Hockney's creative development and concerns about representation can be traced through his portrait work from his battle with naturalism to his experimentation with and later rejection of photography and from his recent camera lucida drawings to his return to painting from life Featuring more than 250 works from the past fifty years David Hockney Portraits illustrates not only the fascinating range of Hockney's creative practice but also the unique and cyclical nature of his artistic concerns

days literary adaptation has provided the movies with stories and so we use literary terms like metaphor metonymy and synecdoche to describe visual things But there is another way of looking at film and that is through its relationship with the visual arts mainly painting the oldest of the art forms Art History for Filmmakers is an inspiring guide to how images from art can be used by filmmakers to establish period detail and to teach composition color theory and lighting The book looks at the key moments in the development of the Western painting and how these became part of the Western visual culture from which cinema emerges before exploring how paintings can be representative of different genres such as horror sex violence realism and fantasy and how the images in these paintings connect with cinema Insightful case studies explore the links between art and cinema through the work of seven high profile filmmakers including Peter Greenaway Peter Webber Jack Cardiff Martin Scorsese Guillermo del Toro Quentin Tarantino and Stan Douglas A range of practical exercises are included in the text which can be carried out singly or in small teams Featuring stunning full color images Art History for Filmmakers provides budding filmmakers with a practical guide to how images from art can help to develop their understanding of the visual language of film

Fleckenstein, Sue Hum, 2007-10-11 The essays in Ways of Seeing Ways of Speaking The Integration of Rhetoric and Vision in Constructing the Real explore the intersections among image word and visual habits in shaping realities and subjectivities     Blood, Sweat & Theory Professor of Psychology John Freeman, 2010-01-01 Practice based research is the default approach to postgraduate activity in Drama Theatre and Performance Yet it is only recently beginning to yield any rigorous theory based guides for researchers practitioners supervisors and mentors As a major contribution to the field this book is a vital How To and How Not To guide which identifies the features attitudes principles and skills of practice based research across a range of countries and contexts forms and applications including a number of successful PhD projects Blood Sweat Theory reviews research informed practice and practice informed research in sections which analyse key concepts locate practice based research within historical aesthetic and educational settings challenge received ideas of practice as thesis distinguish research from reflection and feelings from findings push practice based research into new areas of critical inquiry suggest strategies from first proposal through to submission The book includes extensively written case studies of projects from Hala Al Yamani Annette Arlander Johannes Birringer Elena Cologni Robert Germain Helka Maria Kinnunen Yves Knockaert Lee Miller Felix Noble Allan Owens Helen Paris Yoni Prior Leena Rouihainen and Joanne Bob Whalley     Proust Writing Photography Aine Larkin, 2017-07-05 The importance of vision and visual arts such as painting theatre and sculpture in Marcel Proust's A la recherche du temps perdu has long been affirmed another significant system of visual representation in the novel is photography Proust appropriated photography as a practice with its own distinctive characteristics which could inform his writing about the processes of perception and memory Through close textual analysis of scenes where photography is experienced or observed as a practice and scenes where photography is written into the body of the text Aine Larkin offers an invigorating new study that sheds genuinely new light on the presence of photographic motifs in Proust's novel and the subtlety of Proust's engagement with this modern imaging system in his work     The Self-Deceiving Muse Alan Singer, 2010-01-01 Current philosophical discussions of self deception remain steeped in disagreement and controversy In The Self Deceiving Muse Alan Singer proposes a radical revision of our commonplace understanding of self deception Singer asserts that self deception far from being irrational is critical to our capacity to be acute noticers of our experience The book demonstrates how self deception can be both a resource for rational activity generally and more specifically a prompt to aesthetic innovation It thereby provides new insights into the ways in which our imaginative powers bear on art and life The implications philosophical aesthetic and ethical of such a proposition indicate the broadly interdisciplinary thrust of this work which incorporates readings of novels paintings films and video art

The Buddha in the Machine R. John Williams, 2014-06-24 The writers and artists described in this book are joined by a desire to embrace Eastern aesthetics as a means of redeeming Western technoculture The assumption they all share is that at the core of modern Western culture there lies an originary and all encompassing philosophical error and that Asian art offers a way out of that awful matrix That desire this book attempts to demonstrate has informed Anglo and even Asian American debates about technology and art since the late nineteenth century and continues to skew our responses to our own technocultural environment Heidegger Reframed Barbara Bolt,2010-12-02 It is frequently commented that Heidegger writes impenetrable texts that are difficult to read and comprehend but he also as Barbara Bolt demonstrates in this clear original guide to his oeuvre provides an artists guide to the world Heidegger Reframed grounds Heidegger s writings in the critical questions confronting contemporary visual artists and students of art Barbara Bolt takes the most relevant of his texts including his most famous work Being and Time and sets out ways of thinking about art in a post medium digital technocratic and post human age She does so through the frame of works by international artists including Sophie Calle Anish Kapoor and Anselm Keifer A glossary of terms completes this full and clear companion to Heidegger

Research Handbook on Art and Law Jani McCutcheon,Fiona McGaughey,2020-01-31 Featuring international contributions from leading and emerging scholars this innovative Research Handbook presents a panoramic view of how law sees visual art and how visual art sees law It resists the conventional approach to art and law as inherently dissonant one a discipline preoccupied with rationality certainty and objectivity the other a creative enterprise ensconced in the imaginary and inviting multiple unique and subjective interpretations Blending these two distinct disciplines this unique Research Handbook bridges the gap between art and law
