American Engineer and Railroad Journal ,1904      Bosnia and the Destruction of Cultural Heritage Helen Walasek,contributions by Richard Carlton,Amra Hadžimuhamedović,Valery Perry,Tina Wik,2016-03-03 The massive intentional destruction of cultural heritage during the 1992 1995 Bosnian War targeting a historically diverse identity provoked global condemnation and became a seminal marker in the discourse on cultural heritage It prompted an urgent reassessment of how cultural property could be protected in times of conflict and led to a more definitive recognition in international humanitarian law that destruction of a people s cultural heritage is an aspect of genocide Yet surprisingly little has been published on the subject This wide ranging book provides the first comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the destruction of Bosnia Herzegovina's cultural heritage and its far reaching impact. Scrutinizing the responses of the international community during the war including bodies like UNESCO and the Council of Europe the volume also analyses how after the conflict ended external agendas impinged on heritage reconstruction to the detriment of the broader peace process and refugee return. It assesses implementation of Annex 8 of the Dayton Peace Agreement a unique attempt to address the devastation to Bosnia's cultural heritage and examines the treatment of war crimes involving cultural property at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY. With numerous case studies and plentiful illustrations this important volume considers questions which have moved to the foreground with the inclusion of cultural heritage preservation in discussions of the right to culture in human rights discourse and as a vital element of post conflict and development aid.

Whether it's real or imaginary every child has a secret space and this remarkable book explores them all. For some it's a treehouse or a hidden spot beneath a bush for others it's a private psychic refuge a favorite book or a dollhouse that becomes a stage for a young imagination. As the more than four dozen pieces collected here reveal such spaces play a key role in a child's development and retain a symbolic power that resonates throughout our adult lives. No reader will put this book down without experiencing a rush of familiar memories and new insights into that bygone world. Poet Diane Ackerman evokes that parallel universe behind the eyes which no one shared or dare discover. Paul Brodeur recalls the fort where he and his brother defended Cape Cod against invaders in World War II. Nobelist Wole Soyinka offers a poignant verse portrait of Africa's lost children and Paul West remembers youthful encounters with his eccentric neighbors Edith and Osbert Sitwell. Elsewhere Robert Coles summons up memories of his first years as a doctor and a wise young patient who taught him a lesson he has never forgotten and Mary Galbraith shows how childhood loss is transformed into art in Ludwig Bemelmans's classic Madeline. And these are just a few of the gems in a treasury that includes Anne Frank the controversial photographs of Sally Mann and the crudely eloquent drawings of young South African refugees. Clinical case studies and profoundly personal imagery. A perceptive thought provoking work for general readers. Secret Spaces of Childhood opens a wonderful window on the world of the young. Elizabeth Goodenough is Lecturer in Comparative Literature the Residential College University of Michigan.
