Necroclimatism in a Spectral World (Dis)order? Nhemachena, Artwell, Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2019-06-25 Highlighting the problematiques of working with a narrow version of greenhouse effects or global warming this book posits the theory of necroclimatism that encompasses broader versions of greenhouse effects and global warming Conceiving cultures societies moral sensibilities epistemologies politics economies legal systems and religions of the formerly colonised peoples as greenhoused and entrapped in the heat of global apartheid and neo colonialism the book refuses to be confined to the pufferies of physical conceptualisations of greenhousing and global warming Underlining the supposed disposability and dispensability of colonised peoples the notion of necroclimatism explicates ways in which some people suffer various forms of death which have increasingly become a feature of global apartheid and neo colonialism that are cast in spectral sacrificial logics Deemed to constitute disposable bodies disposable cultures disposable politics disposable societies disposable epistemologies disposable religions disposable laws and disposable economies the sacrificed are in the age of climate catastrophism once again reminded that they have duties to die to become extinct in order to save the global spaceship that is sinking due to climate change and global warming This book therefore argues that in a sacrificial world dis order binaries between humans and animals good and evil moral and immoral the dead and the living necessarily vanish in the nefarious logic of what marks the era of climate catastrophism and the attendant necroclimatism The book further argues that a sacrificial world dis order is necessarily a posthumanist and postanthropocentric world dis order which should be never granted space in African worlds and even beyond The book thus raises fundamental questions for African anticipatory regimes and for this reason it is handy for scholars in political science sociology social anthropology development studies environmental studies agricultural studies legal studies food science geography religious studies and decolonial fields of studies

The Secret Life of Puppets Victoria Nelson, 2003-11-01 In a tour of Western culture that is at once exhilarating and alarming Nelson shows us the distorted forms in which the spiritual resurfaced in high art but also strikingly in the mass culture of puppets horror fantasy literature and cyborgs from the works of Kleist Poe Musil and Lovecraft to Philip K Dick and virtual reality simulations World-Class Brain Harald S.

Harung, Frederick Travis, 2025-05-30 This book tells the story of world class performers and offers an easy to read introduction to research showing that their brain function is different from the brains of average performers No surprise there But what is surprising is that regardless of whether these top performers are athletes musicians or CEOs their brains share one feature that makes them stand out more integrated functioning Their brains work in a more coherent relaxed wakeful and efficient way Other features these top performers have in common include intensely happy and fulfilling peak experiences and a greater moral sense Readers also learn how they too can effortlessly develop greater brain integration About the authors Dr Harald S Harung is an interdisciplinary peak performance researcher at Oslo Metropolitan University in Norway For many years he taught Leadership ethics and world class performance to classes of up to 500 students Harald holds a Ph D from the University of Manchester and has worked as a researcher at Oxford University naval officer CEO of an engineering company and president of an international business college Dr Frederick Travis has been Director of the Center for Brain Consciousness and Cognition at Maharishi International University in the US since 1990 His work has focused on brain development from birth to adulthood higher states of consciousness and the effects of meditation experiences on the brain Fred and Harald were the first researchers in the world to find a brain basis of high performance The

Philosophers' Secret Fire Patrick Harpur, 2007 Is there any place for the ancient myths of our ancestors in modern times Could their shadowy presence in our common imagination be more influential than we realise Across the globe many societies still believe in an Otherworld of spirits gods and daimons which the West has banished to the unconscious mind and now only visits in dreams Yet this visionary tradition continues to subvert the rational universe erupting out of the shadows in times of intense religious and philosophical transition In his dazzling history of the imagination Patrick Harpur links together fields as far apart as Greek philosophy and depth psychology Renaissance magic and tribal ritual Romantic poetry and the ecstasy of the shaman to trace how myths have been used to make sense of the world He uncovers that tradition which alchemists imagined as a Golden Chain of initiates who passed their mysterious secret fire down through the ages As this inspiring book shows the secret of this perennial wisdom is of an imaginative insight a simple way of seeing that re enchants our existence and restores us to our own true selves The Only Mind Worth Having Gardner Fiona, 2016-11-24 In The

Only Mind Worth Having Fiona Gardner takes Thomas Merton's belief that the child mind is the only mind worth having and explores it in the context of Jesus challenging paradoxical and enigmatic command to become like small children She demonstrates how Merton's belief and Jesus command can be understood as part of contemporary spirituality and spiritual practice To follow Christ's command requires a great leap of the imagination Gardner examines what it might mean to make this leap when one is an adult without it becoming sentimental and mawkish or regressive and pathological Using both psychological and spiritual insights and drawing on the experiences of Thomas Merton and others Gardner suggests that in some mysterious and paradoxical way recovering a sense of childhood spirituality is the path towards spiritual maturity The move from childhood spirituality to adulthood and on to a spiritual maturity through the child mind is a move from innocence to experience to organised innocence or from dependence to independence to a state of being in dependence with God

On Dreams and the East C. G. Jung, Heinrich Zimmer, 2025-01-14 Jung's landmark seminar on the symbolism of yoga and its applications to dream analysis In the summer of 1933 C G Jung conducted a seminar in Berlin attended by a large audience of some 150 people including several Jewish Jungians who would soon leave Germany Hitler had begun consolidating his position as dictator and these students were distressed at Jung's recent decision to accept the presidency of a German professional psychotherapy society that was rapidly becoming Nazified and purged of Jews On Dreams and the East makes these seminar sessions widely available for the first time offering tantalizing insights into Jung's evolving understanding of yoga and the realization of the self The seminar commences with a presentation on the psychology of yoga by noted Indologist and linguist Heinrich Zimmer whose collaboration in these talks reflects Jung's growing engagement with the Hindu tradition particularly Tantric yoga Jung analyzes a series of dreams of a middle aged male patient focusing on mandalas and the centering process He reflects on related motifs in alchemical symbolism Navaho healing drawings Mithraism baptism symbolism the foundation of Rome ecclesiastic dances and labyrinths drawing connections with the symbolism of yoga and Tantra Featuring a richly documented introduction by Giovanni Sorge On Dreams and the East opens a window on Jung's deepening exploration of Eastern thought and the comparative study of the individuation process at a critical juncture in his life and work
