A Catalogue of the Law Collection at New York University Julius J. Marke, 1999 Marke Julius J Editor A Catalogue of the Law Collection at New York University With Selected Annotations New York The Law Center of New York University 1953 xxxi 1372 pp Reprinted 1999 by The Lawbook Exchange Ltd LCCN 99 19939 ISBN 1 886363 91 9 Cloth 195 Reprint of the massive well annotated catalogue compiled by the librarian of the School of Law at New York University Classifies approximately 15 000 works excluding foreign law by Sources of the Law History of Law and its Institutions Public and Private Law Comparative Law Jurisprudence and Philosophy of Law Political and Economic Theory Trials Biography Law and Literature Periodicals and Serials and Reference Material With a thorough subject and author index This reference volume will be of continuous value to the legal scholar and bibliographer due not only to the works included but to the authoritative annotations often citing more than one source Besterman A World Bibliography of Bibliographies 3461 The French Secret Services , 1993-01-01 The French secret services have a long history dating back to the ancien regime With the founding of the Third Republic 1870 1940 the famous Second Bureau was created as France s principal intelligence gathering organization After the Germans invaded France in 1940 however the services splintered and diversified with Vichy agencies and Collaborationists the Free French and the internal resistance all in contention More recently since 1944 the activities of the reorganized French secret services have extended across a surprisingly wide area sometimes with spectacular results as in the Greenpeace Affair in New Zealand in 1985 This volume deals with the French secret services according to a chronological framework which reflects the evolution of the services which were created and transformed by both internal and external historical factors The bibliography commences with an examination of the origins and development of the French Intelligence Service from the ancien regime to 1870 It then considers the history and activities of the secret services during the following periods the Third Republic the Second World War the Fourth Republic and the Fifth Republic firstly between 1958 and 1981 and then during the 1980s and 1990s including the Greenpeace Affair This is an essential reference tool for all those interested in the history of intelligence agencies and national security in general and in the development of the French secret services in particular , Singing Our Way to Victory Regina M. Sweeney, 2023-09-05 Winner of the International Book Award from International Association for the Study of Popular Music 2003 The practice of singing and songwriting in France during the Great War provides an intriguing tool for the exploration of the French cultural politics of the epoch Responding to the dearth of cultural studies of the First World War Regina Sweeney s unique cross disciplinary study illuminates many of the hitherto unexplored corners of an era that many historians consider to exhibit a break with recognizable trends In early twentieth century Europe singing was considered a part of education integral to the formation of good citizens Singing was especially important to the French for whom it was historically associated with authenticity of feeling and purity of character and thereby with the very roots of French democracy it was particularly associated with the image of France as a victorious nation But as Sweeney shows different performances of the same patriotic song could carry vastly different meanings By focusing on singing Sweeney is able to provide a more nuanced reading of French Great War cultures than ever before and to show that cultures previously held to be exclusive those of the home front and the Western front for example existed in dialectical tension and were themselves far from homogenous The Westminster Review ,1856 Polemos & Pharmakon T Oratologie du corps social africain Albert

Department of Printed Books,1902 Prisoners of War Bob Moore,2022-04-14 The Second World War between the European Axis powers and the Allies saw more than twenty million soldiers taken as prisoners of war While this total is inflated by the unconditional surrender of all German forces in Europe on 8 May 1945 it nonetheless highlights the fact that captivity was one of the most common experiences for all those in uniform even more common than frontline service Despite this and the huge literature on so many aspects of the war prisoner of war histories have remained a separate and sometimes isolated element in the wider national chronicles of the conflict constructed in the post war era Prisoners of every nationality had their own narratives of military service and captivity While it is impossible to encompass their collective histories let alone the individual experiences of all twenty million prisoners in a single volume Bob Moore uses a series of case studies to highlight the key elements involved and to introduce analyse and refine some of the major debates that have arisen in the existing historiography The study is divided into three broad sections captivity in Eastern and Western Europe during the war itself comparative studies of specific categories of prisoners and the repatriation and reintegration of prisoners after the war The Royal Engineers Journal ,1920 French Generals of the Great War Jonathan Krause,William Philpott,2023-06-30 Who were the senior generals who took France through the First World War and why do we know so little about them They commanded the largest force on the Western Front through both humiliating defeats and forgotten victories they won international respect and adoration but also led their army to infamous mutiny Nevertheless the French and their allies under a French General in Chief would eventually achieve final victory over Imperial Germany It is extraordinary that this remarkable group of men has been so neglected in histories on the war Previous studies are outdated and haven't tapped the wealth of primary source material in France's military archives It is this gap in the literature and in the understanding of the conflict that this thought provoking and original volume is designed to address It takes a collective biographical approach to the leading French soldiers who ran the war on the Western Front Report of the ...

A Select Analytical List of Books Concerning the Great War George Walter Prothero, 1923 Les Livres de L'année, 1923 Wartime Journalism, 1939-1943 Paul De Man, 1988-01-01 In occupied Belgium during World War II Paul de Man 1919 1983 wrote music lecture and exhibition reviews a regular book column interviews and articles on cultural politics for the Brussels daily newspaper Le Soir From December 1940 until he resigned in November 1942 de Man contributed almost 200 articles to this and another newspaper both then controlled by Nazi sympathizers and vocal advocates of the new order Later to become one of the most respected and influential literary theorists in America de Man then 21 and 22 years old wrote primarily as the chief literary critic for Le Soir His weekly column reviewed the latest novels and poetry from Belgium France Germany and England De Man commented extensively on major propaganda expositions and interviewed leading writers and cultural figures including Paul Valéry and the future Vichy Education minister Abel Bonnard The political extremes of de Man's wartime writing are marked by two articles His single anti-Semitic article Les Juifs dans la littérature actuelle 4 March 1941 acquiesces in the deportation of Jews to a Jewish colony isolated from Europe But de Man later argued in defense of a Resistance linked journal A propos de la revue Messages 14 July 1942 against the totalitarian censors' unconsidered attacks This volume reprints in facsimile all of de Man's articles in Le Soir as well as three articles he wrote prior to the occupation in 1940 as editor of the liberal Cahiers du Libre Examen It also includes English translations of the ten articles written in Flemish for the Antwerp paper Het Vlaamsche Land in March October 1942 The collection appears under the auspices of the Oxford Literary Review England's leading theoretical journal for over a decade

Internationales und Ausländisches Recht Internationale Vereinigung für Vergleichende Rechtswissenschaft und Volkswirtschaftslehre zu Berlin, 1914 The Second World War Nick Smart, 2017-11-30 The significant and sustained popular interest in the Second World War is matched by the scale and scope of scholarly engagement in the subject The articles selected for this volume cover a wide range of topics reflecting the fact that the largest recorded war in history and the most intense period of global instability in the twentieth century was fought by many different states large and small over differing periods of time and for many different reasons In an area where there is no shortage of material to choose from the articles presented here are distinguished for their depth of scholarship stylistic elegance and interdisciplinary confidence

Pétain Nicholas Atkins, 2014-06-17 Pétain 1856 1951 remains one of the most controversial figures in the history of modern France He was saviour of his country at Verdun in 1916 during the First World War but tried for treason as head of state of the collaborationist Vichy government after World War II Were his actions those of a traitor or a patriot facing the total disintegration of his country In exploring the actions of this controversial figure Nicholas Atkins also reveals the divisions and uncertainties of France herself
