A Generation of Spanish Poets 1920-1936 C. B.

Morris,1969-09 This critical study of the group of remarkably talented poets who flourished in Spain between the First World War and the Spanish Civil War includes copious quotations accompanied by English prose translations Mr Morris treats his poets as a group showing how they shared certain themes and attitudes He begins with a general study of the generation as a whole and then examines the use of tradition the zest and levity of the Jazz Age the exaltation of life as a shared attitude then its converse the escape from life and finally the expression in complex imagery of personal tensions and disturbances These are often difficult poets but become less so when they are sympathetically examined in this way and in relation to earlier literary traditions Mr Morris enables the reader to take bearings and establish relationships which are enhanced by reproductions of photographs of the poets

Staging the Spanish Golden Age

Kathleen Jeffs,2018-04-13 In this volume Kathleen Jeffs draws on first hand experience of the Royal Shakespeare Company s rehearsal room for the 2004 05 Spanish Golden Age season to put forth a collaborative model for translating rehearsing and performing Spanish Golden Age drama Building on the RSC season the volume offers methodologies for translation and communication that can feed the creative processes of actors and directors while maintaining an ethos of fidelity with regards to the original texts It argues that collaboration between academics and theatre practitioners was instrumental in the success of the season and that the work carried out has repercussions for critical debate of Comedia The volume posits a model for future productions of the Comedia in English one that recognizes the need for the languages of the scholar and the theatre artist to be made mutually intelligible by the use of collaborative strategies mediated by a consultant or dramaturg proficient in both tongues This model applies more generally to theatrical collaborations involving a translator writer and director and will be useful for translation and performance processes in any language
