How do we know our kids are getting it and what do we do when they don't get it? It is an easy to use practical resource for ELD, ESL, and ESOL pull out teachers and for push in teachers working in class to support English language learners. The book's five main sections are geared to the stages of language proficiency and lessons are divided into younger and older students spanning kindergarten through grade 8. The authors outline fifty-two lessons that teach students how to make connections, ask questions, visualize, make mental images, infer, determine importance, and synthesize. Each lesson follows a four-part teaching framework: Start Up, Connection, helping students build background and use prior knowledge to connect to the lesson; Give Information, explicitly telling students what they are going to learn and why they are learning it; and then teaching them. Active Involvement often occurs during the teaching as students practice what they are learning while the teacher checks for understanding and monitors and adjusts instruction. Off You Go, opportunities for students to practice what they learned with peers or independently. Making Sense also explores the stages of language proficiency through descriptions of ten English language learners of different ages. A chart of student characteristics for each stage shows how students demonstrate understanding and outlines the implications for planning instruction. This book will appeal to experienced teachers seeking to expand their repertoire of lessons as well as new teachers just beginning the adventure of teaching comprehension to English language learners.

Resurrecting Pompeii Estelle Lazer, 2009-09-10 Recognizing the important contribution of the human skeletal evidence to the archaeology of Pompeii, Lazer presents an in-depth study of the people of Pompeii and gives students an essential resource in the study of this fascinating historical event.

Trimalchio's Feast and other mini-mysteries Caroline Lawrence, 2010-12-30 Between writing her bestselling novels, Caroline Lawrence has penned several short stories covering incidents alluded to in the novels but not dramatised at length. This book brings together mini-mysteries to provide even more coverage of events in the lives of our four detectives during the dangerous, exciting reign of Emperor Titus. Each of these short and sharp stories is as compelling and exciting as the novels, full of the sights and sounds of ancient Rome. Caroline Lawrence has written exclusive notes on each story providing background on the inspiration and relevance to the series.

Building Bridges of Time, Places, and People J. Marc. Merrill, 2012-06 From Chapter 5: By a quirk of fate, says Darcie Conner Johnston, the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius in 79 AD caught Pompeii at a time of great spiritual change. As a gateway south and east to Greece and Egypt and the Eurasian landmass, beyond the city was heir to a panoply of faiths. A host of foreign gods had begun to usurp the positions of the venerable Olympian deities and the imperial Roman pantheon. Christians were likely to have been here as well, though the evidence of their presence is sketchy.

Page 71 of Pompeii: The Vanished City. Besides the evidence that has already been presented, more remains to demonstrate that once again, the accepted historical point of view is incorrect. For example, This second volume of Building Bridges of Time, Places, and People presents the overwhelming evidence that some of the most prominent leaders of the New Testament Church left the lands of Judea and Galilee when war between Rome and the Jews seemed certain and they settled in Pompeii.

and Herculaneum These leaders included Simon Peter Paul Luke and John Mark the author of The Gospel of Mark They were accompanied by converts such as Cornelius the centurion who was the first Gentile to be baptized and by the mother of Christ This volume also investigates the town of Sepphoris in Galilee and makes a compelling case for the claim that the Messiah of the New Testament grew up there rather than in Nazareth his identity hidden until he began his ministry at the age of 30
