Security And Cooperation In The Eastern Mediterranean:

Security and Cooperation in the Eastern Mediterranean Andreas Theophanous, Van Coufoudakis, 1997 Regional Security in the Middle East, Greece in the Twentieth Century Fotini Bellou, Theodore A. Couloubis, Theodore C. Kariotis, 2013-01-11 This collective study examines the transformation metamorphosis that Greece has experienced over the course of the 20th century by exploring its gradual evolution into a consolidated democracy an advanced economy in the Eurozone and a balanced partner in the EU and NATO promoting a stabilizing role in southeastern Europe The book examines the variables contributing to the profiling of contemporary Greece emphasizing the conceptual inertia bedeviling the studies of Greece in recent years by focusing on the elements that indicated the slow pace in the country's modernization In conclusion there is a need for Greece's constant commitment to functional adjustments regarding the country's economic political and strategic priorities in order to promote effectively the role of regional stabilizer acting in concert with NATO and EU partners

Security and Cooperation in the Eastern Mediterranean, 1999-01-01 Security Challenges in the Euro-Med Area in the 21st Century Stephen C. Calleya, 2012 This book provides an empirical analysis of security challenges in the Euro Mediterranean area and highlights the political military economic societal and environmental issues that are already serving as a source of instability in the region

Dialogue with the Mediterranean Gareth Mark Winrow, 2002-05-03 The first examination of the importance of NATO's Mediterranean Initiative for the security and stability of the Euro Mediterranean area this book discusses the challenges risks and possible threats to NATO member states which may stem from the southern and eastern Mediterranean

Deciphering the Eastern Mediterranean's Hydrocarbon Dynamics Bahrooz Jaafar Jabbar, 2024-09-25 This comprehensive study delves into the strategic importance of the Mediterranean Sea and examines key conflicts as well as the roles of extra regional actors such as NATO Russia and the USA in shaping dynamics within the Eastern Mediterranean

The New Politics of Energy Security in the European Union and Beyond Andrea Prontera, 2017-05-18 Combining theoretical reflections

and empirical insights from paradigmatic case studies in the area of external energy governance pipeline politics Liquefied Natural Gas development and offshore petroleum policy and politics this ground breaking study demonstrates that a distinctive and new politics of energy security is definitively emerging in the European Union Innovative not only in regard to the case studies presented which include the Caspian region the Baltic Mediterranean countries Central Asia and EU Russia relations but also in regard to the analytical framework adopted an International Political Economy approach informed by an historical institutional perspective the book challenges the common view of the de politicisation of energy security supported by the mainstream market approach and the power politics and zero sum game view supported by the geopolitical perspective This book places the study of EU energy politics in the broader evolving context of global energy markets and explores the complex interactions between EU and national political dynamics and between energy security and environmental concerns at the local level Metamorphosis of Turkish Foreign Policy in the 21st Century NERGİZ

ÖZKURAL KÖROĞLU, HAMOON KHELGHAT-DOOST, 2023-04-21 The fading of the post WWII order called for Turkey to take on a new role in this new multi centered and multipolar era with new players emerging from different regions across the globe The new enterprising and humanitarian foreign policy is an effort to locate Turkey better in the 21st global politics While the literature on principles of Turkish foreign policy is abundant the actual mechanisms by which these principles are implemented in practice are still ambiguous to most scholars and foreign policy practitioners especially within the country s newly developed Turkish foreign policy framework This edited volume directs to shed light on this little explored aspect of Turkish foreign policy By critically analyzing several cases from different geographical locations this volume explains why Turkey developed a new foreign policy framework and by which mechanisms this new foreign policy framework has been implemented around the world This volume also critically explores how the new Turkish foreign policy framework customizes its tools and capacities in various international regions around the world Human Security in the Middle East and North Africa Alaa Al-Din Arafat, 2024-12-20 This book analyzes major human security threats in the MENA region including food water energy climate and health security It also examines sectarian conflict terrorism and poverty in the region The author highlights the relationship between human security concerns and conventional or military security threats He demonstrates how MENA nations failed to respond to the region s human security threats and to develop a human security formula and regional security architecture that included both human and conventional security threats Therefore this book concludes that the MENA region s future will be determined by its governments ability to address human security threats

Euro-Mediterranean Security: A Search for Partnership Sven Biscop, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This work provides a clearer understanding of the EU s approach towards security in the Mediterranean After examining the EU s interests and the potential threats to security in the region it analyzes EU security policy towards the region as a whole through the Euro Mediterranean Partnership and towards all disputes and conflicts in the area It recommends opening up the European Security and Defence Policy to Mediterranean participation in order to establish a deep and equitable security partnership between both shores The book argues that this way the EU could implement its innovative comprehensive and cooperative approach to security Rather than focusing on the military aspect alone this approach takes into account all dimensions of security political socio economic cultural and ecological and is based on partnership rather than confrontation It therefore contrasts quite sharply with the policies advocated in the US National Security Strategy

The Cyprus Review, 1997 Transnational Security Cooperation in the Mediterranean Robert Mason, 2020-10-13 This volume draws together academics and think tank experts to explore the revised European Neighborhood Policy ENP and EU Global Strategy EUGS towards the Southern Neighborhood in the context of the Arab Uprisings and conflict counter terrorism cooperation the Mediterranean refugee crisis energy developments in the Eastern Mediterranean shifting interactions with and between international partners and the fallout from Covid 19 Covering aspects such as actors power and alliances history socioeconomics domestic politics regime security and the regional security complex the authors provide a comprehensive and theoretically rich analysis of EU policy inputs southern neighborhood interests and responses as well as new strategy proposals aimed at enhancing human security The volume will appeal to European and Middle East studies students international relations scholars and policy professionals alike
