Music/Video Gina Arnold, Daniel Cookney, Kirsty Fairclough, Michael Goddard, 2017-08-30 This book is a lively comprehensive and timely reader on the music video capitalising on cross disciplinary research expertise which represents a substantial academic engagement with the music video a mediated form and practice that still remains relatively under explored in a 21st century context The music video has remained suspended between two distinct poles On the one hand the music video as the visual sheen of late capitalism at the intersection of celebrity studies and postmodernism On the other hand the music video as art looking to a prehistory of avant garde film making while perpetually pushing forward the digital frontier with a taste for anarchy controversy and the integration of special effects into a form designed to be disseminated across digital platforms In this way the music video virally re engenders debates about high art and low culture This collection presents a comprehensive account of the music video from a contemporary 21st century perspective This entails revisiting key moments in the canonical history of the music video exploring its articulations of sexuality and gender examining its functioning as a form of artistic expression between music film and video art and following the music video s dissemination into the digital domain considering how digital media and social media have come to re invent the forms and functions of the music video well beyond the limits of music television Experimental British television Laura Mulvey, Jamie Sexton, 2015-07-01

Throughout its history British television has found a place if only in its margins for programmes that consciously worked to expand the boundaries of television aesthetics Even in the present climate of increased academic interest in television history its experimental tradition has generally either been approached generically or been lost within the assumption that television is simply a mass medium Available for the first time in paperback Experimental British television uncovers the history of experimental television bringing back forgotten programmes in addition to looking at relatively more privileged artists or programme strands from fresh perspectives The book therefore goes against the grain of dominant television studies which tends to place the medium within the flow of the everyday in order to scrutinise those productions that attempted to make more serious interventions within the medium Popular Music and Film Ian Inglis, 2003 The growing presence of popular music in film is one of the most exciting areas of contemporary Film Studies Written by a range of international specialists this collection includes case studies on Sliding Doors Topless Women Talk About Their Lives The Big Chill and Moulin Rouge considering the work of populist musicians such as the Beatles Jimi Hendrix and Sting Contributors to the volume include Robb Wright Lesley Vize Phil Powrie Anno Mungen Anaheid Kassabian Lauren Anderson Antti Ville Karja K J Donnelly Lee Barron Melissa Carey Michael Hannan and Jaap Kooijman How to Make Movies Kevin J.

Lindenmuth, 2013-03-08 The success of low budget independent films like The Blair Witch Project and Paranormal Activity have clearly demonstrated that successful movies can be made with very small budgets Still working on a tight budget requires both skill and ingenuity and is an inevitable and continuous learning experience for the filmmaker Join two dozen truly independent filmmakers those used to working and delivering within extreme limitations as they bluntly chronicle their experiences creating features from the trenches They cover the major stages of the filmmaking process from financing technical decisions and handling actors and crew to music production and distribution With loads of practical advice actual case studies and many behind the scenes photographs this collection of war stories from the micro budget front lines will benefit aspiring and experienced independent filmmakers alike Film As Product in Contemporary Hollywood Nick

Lacey, Roy Stafford, 2019-07-25 This teaching pack suitable for AS A2 Media and Film Studies offers a suitable case study for industry and institution and help students demonstrate an understanding of key concepts and contemporary Hollywood
