See Through Stories:

See Through Nelly Reifler, 2006-01-19 Heartbreaking and haunting the stories in this electrifying debut collection explore the deep chasm between expectations and reality and the ways in which we can fragment ourselves and be many people at once Looking Through My Mother's Eyes Giovanna Del Negro, 2003 This look at the traditional and subversive world of women's folklore examines the realm of women's talk exploring the ways Italian immigrant women from Montreal use classic folk genres to stretch the boundaries of their culture Through songs lullabies bawdy riddles and trickster tales these women subvert redefine and alter what it means to be Italian and female in North America More than just a study of Italian Canadians this essay delves into broader themes of gender immigration and ethnicity showcasing voices that contradict homogenizing interpretations of traditional historical scholarship Visible! Oliver Pott, Jan Bargfrede, 2023-05-17 How to make your company unmissable Flashes everywhere loud turned up commercials appear on the screens A day without advertising catching our eye is hardly imaginable in modern everyday life Customer attention is a valuable commodity But how can companies easily and effectively catch the eye of potential customers and convince them of their own product or service In this book online marketing expert Oliver Pott explains how you can achieve smart and sustainable visibility for your company in just six steps in order to address particularly relevant target groups and thereby significantly increase your sales If you also master the three dimensions of valuable visibility consisting of relevance authority and storytelling you can completely abandon flashy campaigns in the future and still remain visible and relevant

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother's death and its impact on him This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church pastors homilists catechetical leaders catechists and teachers parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories Lectures and Stories George

Roy, 1864 Hidden Treasure Gangaji, 2012-09-13 Counsels readers on how to discover personal truths tracing the author's upbringing in a racially divided South her early efforts to find spiritual authenticity and the transformation she experienced while training in India Living the Story 2013 John Cunningham, 2013-09-03 This is a seminary class offered through an extension of Reformed Theological Seminary for the TRINITY FELLOWS PROGRAM in Charlottesville Va It is on theology calling worldview It covers topics such as Creation Fall Redemption Consummation the Trinity Incarnation Atonement It also applies Christian thought to issues like sexuality gender work and rest Exemplary Stories Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, 1998 Even more popular in their day than Don Quixote Cervantes's Exemplary Stories 1613 surprise challenge and delight Ranging from the picaresque to the satirical Cervantes's Exemplary Stories defy the conventions of heroic chivalric literature through a combination of comic irony moral ambiguity realism and sheer mirth With acute narrative skill and deft

characterisation drawing on colloquial language and farce Cervantes creates a tension between the everyday and the literary the plausible and the improbable While encouraging us to reach our own moral conclusions he also persuades us to accept the coincidental and the incredible two boys indulge their life of crime at a time of public prayer a young nobleman undergoes a change of identity at the behest of not a princess but a mere gipsy girl and most fantastically talking dogs philosophize in a ward full of syphilitics By placing the extraordinary within the contexts of the ordinary the Exemplary Stories chart new novelistic territory and demonstrate Cervantes at his most imaginative and innovative This new translation captures the full vigour of Cervantes's wit and makes available two rarely printed tales The Illustrious Kitchen Maid and The Power of Blood

Available Light Clifford Geertz,2001-07-22 In this collection of essays Clifford Geertz explores the nature of his anthropological work in relation to a broader public serving as the foremost spokesperson of his generation of scholars those who came of age after World War II Geertz who once considered a career in philosophy begins by explaining how he got swept into the revolutionary movement of symbolic anthropology At that point his work began to encompass not only the ethnography of groups in Southeast Asia and North Africa but also the study of how meaning is made in all cultures or to use his phrase to explore the frames of meaning in which people everywhere live out their lives His philosophical orientation helped him to establish the role of anthropology within broader intellectual circles and led him to address the work of such leading thinkers as Charles Taylor Thomas Kuhn William James and Jerome Bruner In this volume Geertz comments on their work as he explores questions in political philosophy psychology and religion that have intrigued him throughout his career but that now hold particular relevance in light of postmodernist thinking and multiculturalism Available Light offers discussions of concepts such as nation identity country and self with a reminder that like symbols in general their meanings are not categorically fixed but grow and change through time and place

The Accident at Sanborn Corners.....and Other Minnesota Short Stories J. L. Larson,2013-06 Minnesota is known for frigid weather thousands of lakes and Scandinavian humor But in this anthology of ten short stories J L Larson shows a different side of the state via unique tales of conflict adventure and intrigue that often transport characters outside its borders In July of 1970 at a benign looking intersection in the middle of Minnesota farmland a fateful mishap occurs yet again What is it about this seemingly nondescript junction that makes it such a repetitive and bloody deathtrap Is it the terrain the weather the drivers or a combination of these and maybe a few other factors In another story a paper company executive and his wife must cope with an empty nest and the loss of his job He s doing fine until he receives a strange late night call about his self centered malicious nemesis from the old job In tale after tale Larson showcases eclectic characters who embark on adventures that include a disaster on a popular lake an emotional confrontation in a university classroom the mysterious travel exploits experienced by a young man with his uncle and the recurring dramatic impact on a young teen as his life moves forward following a seemingly insignificant encounter The Accident at Sanborn Corners and Other Minnesota Short Stories is an entertaining compilation of situations and themes that illustrate how various characters cope with the unexpected in life

The Politics of (M)Othering Obioma Nnaemeka,2005-08-04 This collection is a study of African literature framed by the central and multi faceted idea of mother motherland mothertongue motherwit motherhood mothering looking at the paradoxical location of m other as both central and marginal Whilst the volume stands as a sustained feminist analysis it engages feminist theory itself by showing how issues in feminism are in African literature recast in different and complex ways
