See Up The Mountain:

Halfway Up The Mountain Mariana Caplan, 2014-03-04 Caplan TO TOUCH IS TO LIVE asserts that the reality of the present condition of contemporary spirituality in the West is one of grave distortion confusion fraud and a fundamental lack of education She claims that as positive as the tremendous rise in spirituality is there is not any context for determining whether any particular teaching or teacher is truly enlightening Caplan compiles interviews with such noted spiritual masters as Joan Halifax Llewellyn Vaughan Lee and Rabbi Zalman Schachter Shalomi on the nature of enlightenment In the first section Caplan examines the motivations people have for seeking enlightenment and contends that very often they seek this state as a means of gratifying the ego This presumption of enlightenment she says often afflicts teachers masquerading as spiritual leaders These teachers sometimes look down on their students and gloat over how far they have come and how far the students have to go A second section focuses on The Dangers of Mystical Experience in which Caplan claims that many seekers mistake the mystical experience itself for enlightenment she and the teachers she interviews all assert that enlightenment always involves gaining some knowledge about self and others The third section Corruption and Consequence focuses on the nature of power and corruption the fourth section Navigating the Mine Field Preventing Dangers on the Path provides a survey of the ways in which practitioners can avoid the pitfalls of false enlightenment A final section Disillusionment Humility and the Beginning of Spiritual Life concludes that the Real spiritual life is the life of total annihilation and the return to just what is Caplan s illuminating book calls into question the motives of the spiritual snake handlers of the modern age and urges seekers to pay the price of traveling the hard road to true enlightenment Women & Middlehood Jane Treat, Nancy Geha, 2013-07 Middlehood women share insights stories wisdom and creative ideas for navigating this rich time of change with courage laughter and love Stand Up That Mountain Jay Erskine Leutze, 2013-07-30 In the tradition of A Civil Action this true story of a North Carolina outdoorsman who teams up with his Appalachian neighbors to save treasured land from being destroyed will make you want to head for the mountains Raleigh News Observer LIVING ALONE IN HIS WOODED MOUNTAIN RETREAT Jay Leutze gets a call from a whip smart fourteen year old Ashley Cook and her aunt Ollie Cox who say a local mining company is intent on tearing down Belview Mountain the towering peak above their house Ashley and her family who live in a little spot known locally as Dog Town are mountain people with a way of life and speech unique to their home high in the Appalachians They suspect the mining company is violating North Carolina s mining law and they want Jay a nonpracticing attorney to stop the destruction of the mountain Jay a devoted naturalist and fisherman quickly decides to join their cause So begins the epic quest of the Dog Town Bunch a battle that involves fiery public hearings clandestine surveillance of the mine operator s highly questionable activities ferocious pressure on public officials and high stakes legal brinksmanship in the North Carolina court system Jay helps assemble a talented group of environmental lawyers to contend with the well funded attorneys protecting the mining
