See Through Stories:

See Through Nelly Reifler, 2006-01-19 Heartbreaking and haunting the stories in this electrifying debut collection explore the deep chasm between expectations and reality and the ways in which we can fragment ourselves and be many people at once

Looking Through My Mother's Eyes Giovanna Del Negro, 2003 This look at the traditional and subversive world of women's folklore examines the realm of women's talk exploring the ways Italian immigrant women from Montreal use classic folk genres to stretch the boundaries of their culture Through songs lullabies bawdy riddles and trickster tales these women subvert redefine and alter what it means to be Italian and female in North America More than just a study of Italian Canadians this essay delves into broader themes of gender immigration and ethnicity showcasing voices that contradict homogenizing interpretations of traditional historical scholarship

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother's death and its impact on him This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church pastors homilists catechetical leaders catechists and teachers parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories

Things that Matter William L. Randall, Matte Robinson, 2023-11-30 Many of us have particular things in our lives photographs paintings old letters books furniture jewellery or clothing that hold special meaning for us Often they correspond to pivotal memories and can be central to our sense of self and our life narratives all the more so as we age Things That Matter sheds important light on the intricate intertwining of mementos with stories and vice versa in most people's lives The book explores the significance of cherished objects within the life stories of nine participants in a qualitative study of the links between reminiscence and resilience in later life The researchers who conducted the study represent a variety of fields including gerontology social work ministry nursing literature and education The book details how life stories can be fraught with a wide range of insights and questions from the memories that get stirred up as people embark on the process of life review prompted by the challenges and changes of aging Shedding light on the complex emotional psychological and spiritual findings of the study Things That Matter ultimately reveals the intricacy of personal narrative and the incredible ways in which things and stories are interwoven in our lives over time

Exemplary Stories

Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, 1998 Even more popular in their day than Don Quixote Cervantes's Exemplary Stories 1613 surprise challenge and delight Ranging from the picaresque to the satirical Cervantes's Exemplary Stories defy the conventions of heroic chivalric literature through a combination of comic irony moral ambiguity realism and sheer mirth With acute narrative skill and deft characterisation drawing on colloquial language and farce Cervantes creates a tension between the everyday and the literary the plausible and the improbable While encouraging us to reach our own moral conclusions he also persuades us to accept the coincidental and the incredible two boys indulge their life of crime at a time of public prayer

a young nobleman undergoes a change of identity at the behest of not a princess but a mere gipsy girl and most fantastically talking dogs philosophize in a ward full of syphilitics By placing the extraordinary within the contexts of the ordinary the Exemplary Stories chart new novelistic territory and demonstrate Cervantes at his most imaginative and innovative This new translation captures the full vigour of Cervantes's wit and makes available two rarely printed tales The Illustrious Kitchen Maid and The Power of Blood

Available Light Clifford Geertz, 2001-07-22 In this collection of essays Clifford Geertz explores the nature of his anthropological work in relation to a broader public serving as the foremost spokesperson of his generation of scholars those who came of age after World War II Geertz who once considered a career in philosophy begins by explaining how he got swept into the revolutionary movement of symbolic anthropology At that point his work began to encompass not only the ethnography of groups in Southeast Asia and North Africa but also the study of how meaning is made in all cultures or to use his phrase to explore the frames of meaning in which people everywhere live out their lives His philosophical orientation helped him to establish the role of anthropology within broader intellectual circles and led him to address the work of such leading thinkers as Charles Taylor Thomas Kuhn William James and Jerome Bruner In this volume Geertz comments on their work as he explores questions in political philosophy psychology and religion that have intrigued him throughout his career but that now hold particular relevance in light of postmodernist thinking and multiculturalism Available Light offers discussions of concepts such as nation identity country and self with a reminder that like symbols in general their meanings are not categorically fixed but grow and change through time and place

The Accident at Sanborn Corners.....and Other Minnesota Short Stories J. L. Larson, 2013-06 Minnesota is known for frigid weather thousands of lakes and Scandinavian humor But in this anthology of ten short stories J L Larson shows a different side of the state via unique tales of conflict adventure and intrigue that often transport characters outside its borders In July of 1970 at a benign looking intersection in the middle of Minnesota farmland a fateful mishap occurs yet again What is it about this seemingly nondescript junction that makes it such a repetitive and bloody deathtrap Is it the terrain the weather the drivers or a combination of these and maybe a few other factors In another story a paper company executive and his wife must cope with an empty nest and the loss of his job He s doing fine until he receives a strange late night call about his self centered malicious nemesis from the old job In tale after tale Larson showcases eclectic characters who embark on adventures that include a disaster on a popular lake an emotional confrontation in a university classroom the mysterious travel exploits experienced by a young man with his uncle and the recurring dramatic impact on a young teen as his life moves forward following a seemingly insignificant encounter The Accident at Sanborn Corners and Other Minnesota Short Stories is an entertaining compilation of situations and themes that illustrate how various characters cope with the unexpected in life The Politics of (M)Othering Obioma Nnaemeka,2005-08-04 This collection is a study of African literature framed by the central and multi faceted idea of mother motherland mothertongue motherwit motherhood mothering looking at the paradoxical location of m other as both central and marginal Whilst the volume stands as a sustained feminist analysis it engages feminist theory itself by showing how issues in feminism are in African literature recast in different and complex ways The Best Short Stories of 1919 Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien,1920 *The Complete Works of F. Making Space for Storied Leadership in Higher Education

Elizabeth P. Quintero, Larisa Callaway-Cole, Adria Taha-Resnick, 2021-08-03 This book analyzes stories of university early childhood faculty members community activists in southern California and children and the early childhood teacher education students working with them The grounding of this research is reconceptualization of postmodern narrative theoretical influences Through narrative inquiry the book connects ongoing research to ongoing pedagogy It explores the following research questions 1 How do learners across generations create build upon and reinvent each other's stories to make new meanings through consideration of family history multigenerational knowledge and experiences 2 How do learners stories offer new possibilities through leadership that connects Global South knowledge with Global North contexts 3 In what ways is it possible to use this framework and methodology in Higher Education to promote systemic consistency in promoting social justice that is generatively inclusive More than half of the research participants have truly lived bi culturally many of the children in the early care and education programs in the USA are from Mexico and Central America These collaborators truly carry their roots with them as they strive for justice and authenticity in early childhood teacher education and community activists working with families and children God of Desire Catherine Benton,2006-06-01 Presents Kamadeva the Hindu god of desire in tales art and ritual Also covers Kamadeva s appearance in Buddhist lore Rediscovering God's Grand Story James M. Roseman,2017-09-15 In the passage to modernity we in the West have lost the ability to see things whole We ve closed our minds to all things transcendent and default to unbelief and can t make sense of the persistent echoes of the voice of God that reverberate in our souls In Rediscovering God s Grand Story James Roseman picks up the strands of science philosophy history the arts and theology and reweaves the tapestry to see a coherent story that makes the best sense of the world and provides real meaning and significance to our lives God s Grand Myth We see that the signals of transcendence that confound our culture of doubt are a universal language and vocabulary of the heart echoing the voice of God and in the very Judeo Christian story we so readily jettison is found the Author enabling us to see the world whole again This essay tells why the story and promise of Christianity is so hard to hear today but won t go away Could it be that as T S Eliot wrote in the mid twentieth century at the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time
