Kappelle,2015-06-29 Mistakes disappointments suffering and heartbreak can prevent us from growing physically emotionally even spiritually or they can propel us to a new way of life Building on the contributions of therapists holistic healers and spiritual mentors such as Richard Rohr James Hollis Elizabeth Lesser Bill Plotkin Ken Wilber and Thich Nhat Hanh Dark Splendor takes us on a journey into depth spirituality exploring the two halves of life noting how the perspectives and experiences of the first half of life either leave us frozen emotionally and spiritually or serve as stepping stones to the vibrant maturity called the second half of life This further journey is not chronological nor does one magically stumble upon it at midlife or in times of crisis though these often serve as catalysts The second journey is largely unknown today even by people we consider deeply religious since most individuals and institutions remain stymied in the preoccupations of the first half of life establishing identity creating boundary markers and seeking security The first half of life task while essential is not the full journey Furthermore one cannot walk the second journey with first journey tools One needs a new toolkit Dark Splendor provides the transformational tools that help transport us to the mystery and beauty of the second half of life The world is more magical less predictable more autonomous less controllable more varied less simple more infinite less knowable more wonderfully troubling than we could have imagined being able to tolerate when we were young James Hollis God comes to you disguised as your life Paula D Arcy
