Seeking Bauls Of Bengal:

Seeking Bauls of Bengal Jeanne Openshaw, 2002-07-25 The author charts the rise of Bauls to their present iconic status as minstrels and mystics

Seeking Bāuls of Bengal Jeanne Openshaw, 2004 Bauls have achieved fame as wandering minstrels and mystics in India and Bangladesh They are recruited from both Hindu and Muslim communities and are renowned for their beautiful and often enigmatic songs Despite their iconic status as representatives of the spiritual East and although they have been the subject of a number of studies systematic research with Bauls themselves has been neglected Jeanne Openshaw's book is new not only in analysing the rise of the Bauls to their present revered status but in the depth of its ethnographic research and its reference to the lives of composers and singers as a context for their songs The author uses her fieldwork and oral and manuscript materials to lead the reader from the conventional historical and textual approaches towards a world defined by people called Baul where the human body and love are primary and where women may be extolled above men

In-Between Worlds Sukanya Chakrabarti, 2022-11-25 This book examines the performance of Bauls folk performers from Bengal in the context of a rapidly globalizing Indian economy and against the backdrop of extreme nationalistic discourses Recognizing their scope beyond the musical and cultural realm Sukanya Chakrabarti engages in discussing the subversive and transformational potency of Bauls and their performances In Between Worlds argues that the Bauls through their musical spiritual and cultural performances offer joy and spirituality thus making space for what Dr Ambedkar in his famous 1942 speech had identified as reclamation of human personality Chakrabarti destabilizes the category of folk as a fixed classification or an origin point and fractures homogeneous historical representations of the Baul as a folk performer and a wandering mendicant exposing the complex heterogeneity that characterizes this group Establishing folk-ness as a performance category and folk festivals as sites of performing folk-ness contributing to a heritage industry that thrives on imagined and recreated nostalgia Chakrabarti examines different sites that produce varied performative identities of Bauls probing the limits of such categories while simultaneously advocating for polyvocality and multifocality While this project has grounded itself firmly in performance studies it has borrowed extensively from fields of postcolonial studies and subaltern histories literature ethnography and ethnomusicology and cosmopolitan studies
