Focusing on the practice of journalism in modern China, this book studies the history of modern Chinese journalism and gives insights on its culture and value. Comprised of four chapters, this book revisits the development of the journalism industry after being introduced to China from the West, analysing the development of the profession in comparative perspective. The first three chapters explore the collision and integration of journalism as an imported product against the backdrop of the social culture of modern China and analyzes the modernization of Chinese journalism in terms of news concept, public opinion, and dissemination of newspapers. The final chapter discusses the constraints of modern Chinese journalism that can hinder true independence and freedom, including religious news publications, subsidies, pricing, and the interaction of technology systems and concepts. Discussions of characteristics of modern Chinese journalism also shed light on the development of contemporary Chinese journalism. The book will be a valuable reference for scholars and students of Chinese studies, journalism, and communication studies, especially those interested in Chinese journalism and its history in the modern time.

Appropriating Antiquity for Modern Chinese Painting Chia-Ling Yang, 2023-02-09

The pursuit of antiquity was important for scholarly artists in constructing their knowledge of history and cultural identity in late imperial China. By examining versatile trends within paintings in modern China, this book questions the extent to which historical relics have been used to represent the ethnic identity of modern Chinese art. In doing so, this book asks: did the antiquarian movements ultimately serve as a deliberate tool for re-writing Chinese art history in modern China? In searching for the public meaning of inventive private collecting activity, Appropriating Antiquity in Modern Chinese Painting draws on various modes of artistic creation to address how the use of antiquities in early 20th-century Chinese art both produced and reinforced the imaginative links between ancient civilization and modern lives in the late Qing dynasty. Further exploring how these social and cultural transformations were related to the artistic exchanges happening at the time between China, Japan, and the West, the book successfully analyses how modernity was translated and appropriated at the turn of the 20th century throughout Asia and further afield Japan: Analytical Bibliography with Supplementary Research Aids and Selected Data On: Okinawa, Republic of China (Taiwan), Republic of Korea Army Library (U.S.),1972 Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu,2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu s profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times The essays collected here demonstrate Liu s historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature refusing to succumb to political manipulation Liu s theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods Chinese Animated Film and Ideology, 1940s-1970s Olga Bobrowska,2022-10-24 This book examines animated propaganda produced in mainland China from the 1940s to the 1970s The analyses of four puppet films demonstrate how animation and Maoist doctrine became tightly but dynamically entangled The book firstly contextualizes the production conditions and ideological contents of The Emperor s Dream 1947 the first puppet film made at the Northeast Film Studio in Changchun It then examines the artistic intellectual and ideological backbone of the puppet film Wanderings of Sanmao 1958 The book presents the means and methods applied in puppet animation filmmaking that complied with the ideological principles established by the radical supporters of Mao Zedong in the first half of the 1960s discussing Rooster Crows at Midnight 1964 The final chapter discusses The Little 8th Route Army 1973 created by You Lei in the midst of the Cultural Revolution This book will be of great interest to those in the fields of animation studies film studies political science Chinese area studies and Chinese philology
