Serving Homeschooled Teens And Their Parents:

Serving Homeschooled Teens and Their Parents Maureen T. Lerch, Janet Welch, 2004-05-30 Today more than a million students are being educated at home and that figure increases at a rate of 7 14% annually Homeschooling is a growing trend in our society and public librarians are being called upon with increasing frequency to serve the needs of homeschooled students So just what are the needs of the homeschooled teen and how can you and your library meet those needs A former young adult librarian and a homeschool parent have joined forces to create this insightful guide and answer that question After reviewing the developmental and social needs of teens the authors demonstrate how those needs may be met in the public library setting You ll find a wealth of ideas for adapting every facet of your library service for this growing population from developing a homeschool collection to expanding services and creating special programs You ll also find suggestions on how to market what your library has to offer to homeschoolers You may even discover some new ways to employ the talents and time of these students and their families Extensive resource lists conclude the volume they will help you better serve home educated teens and their parents Serving Young Teens and 'Tweens Sheila B. Anderson, 2006-11-30 Notable teen experts and stellar practitioners from across the country explain why library service to adolescents in this age range is so important and how you can enhance your collection and services to accommodate and win over this important group Topics range from understanding adolescent informational needs and building and promoting a winning collection to creating programs with tween appeal Contributors include Sheila B Anderson James Rosinia Deb Taylor Robyn Lupa and Kristine Mahood Brimming with valuable insights and fresh ideas as well as nuts and bolts directions this is a must read for all librarians who work with young adolescents If someone is described as a young adult what image comes to mind In fact a young adult can be a twelve year old middle schooler or a high school graduate Libraries have traditionally offered a variety programs and services for YAs and although more emphasis has been given to serving teens in recent years little has been done to distinguish between groups within the category and meet the specific developmental needs of this broad range of library users This collection complements Anderson s previous collection Serving Older Teens by focusing on the needs of tweens and young teens ages 11 14 This is the age range when many young people stop using the library and lose interest in reading Notable teen experts and stellar practitioners from across the country explain why service to adolescents in this age range is so important and how you can enhance your collection and services to accommodate and win over this important group Topics range from understanding adolescent informational needs and building and promoting a winning collection to creating programs with tween appeal Contributors include Sheila Anderson James Rosinia Deb Taylor Robyn Lupa Brenda Hager and Kristine Mahood Brimming with valuable insights and fresh ideas as well as nuts and bolts directions this is a must read for all librarians who work with young adolescents Health Information for Youth W.
