Settlement And Social Organization The Merovingian Region Of Metz:

Settlement and Social Organization Guy Halsall, 2002-09-05 This book examines one region of north eastern Gaul around Metz in the period between the end of the Roman Empire and the accession of Charlemagne It adopts a new multi disciplinary approach using all available evidence both documentary and archaeological It deals with a broad range of historical themes and by looking at the reasons behind the creation of different forms of evidence it examines how the different facets of social organisation ethnicity gender age and social hierarchy were related intimately to each other and to contemporary settlement patterns of the region As a result it is argued that the Merovingian period was not one of slow transformation from Roman to medieval but was one of constant dynamic social change and diversity even between the recognised periods of dramatic upheaval
