

Seven beliefs that drove our work

1. Framingham is a great community in which to live, learn, work and play!
2. Our current system of government is disorganized and inefficient, and needs to be improved in order to better meet the needs of our community
3. The work of the Charter Commission should be done in an open and participatory manner, reaching out to a variety of stakeholders and getting feedback from the public throughout the process

Seven Beliefs:

Omnidoxy Cometan, Astronist Institution, 2019-02-11 The Omnidoxy is the founding treatise of the Astronist religion and was solely authored by the philosopher and religious founder Cometan Partitioned into twelve disquisitions each of which are further divided into hundreds of discourses which are themselves titled by those which are known as rubrals The Omnidoxy has been codified according to a unique writing structure known as insentence The Omnidoxy not only forms the foundations of Astronism but it remains the primary modern contributor and the book that ignited the establishment of the Astronic tradition of religion which encompasses the philosophy of Astronism Introducing brand new philosophical concepts such as cosmocentricity reascensionism transcensionism and sentientism amongst many others The Omnidoxy remains the principal signifier of a new era in philosophy The Omnidoxy births hundreds of new belief orientations schools of thought neologisms disciplines of study theories and concepts which when combined and considered collectively have formed the basis of Astronism The authorship of The Omnidoxy rests with the single individual philosopher Cometan who began writing The Omnidoxy at the age of seventeen driven by what he terms as personal inspiration The historical origination of The Omnidoxy rests in its authorship by Brandon Taylorian during early 21st century England specifically in the northern county of Lancashire Like in all textual criticism the timing and location of the codification of The Omnidoxy is integral to understanding why and how it was written especially by considering the influential factors impacting Taylorian during his construction of the text particularly the cultural political religious and social contexts of Taylorian's personal life and of wider society at the time This forms an important branch of study within omnidoxicology known as omnidoxical criticism or omnidoxical exegesis in which scholars study and investigate The Omnidoxy in order to discern conclusive judgements inspired by how where why by whom for whom and in what circumstances The Omnidoxy was written Student and

Teacher Writing Motivational Beliefs Steve Graham, Gary A. Troia, Gustaf Bernhard Uno Skar, 2024-06-21 The study of students motivational beliefs about writing and how such beliefs influence writing has increased since the publication of John Hays 1996 model of writing This model emphasized that writers motivational beliefs influence how and what they write Likewise increased attention has been devoted in recent years to how teachers motivational beliefs about writing especially their efficacy to teach writing impact how writing is taught and how students progress as writers As a result there is a need to bring together in a Research Topic studies that examine the role and influence of writing beliefs Historically the psychological study of writing has focused on what students write or the processes they apply when writing Equally important but investigated less often are studies examining how writing is taught and how teachers efforts contribute to students writing What has been less prominent in the psychological study of writing are the underlying motivational beliefs that drive or inhibit students writing or serve as catalysts for teachers actions in the classroom when teaching writing This Research Topic will bring together studies that examine both students and teachers motivational beliefs about teaching writing This will include studies examining the operation of such beliefs how they develop cognitive and affective correlates how writing motivational beliefs can be fostered and how they are related to students writing achievement By focusing on both students and teachers beliefs the Research Topic will provide a more nuanced and broader picture of the role of motivation beliefs in writing and writing instruction This Research Topic includes papers that address students motivational beliefs about writing teachers motivational beliefs about writing or teaching writing Students motivational beliefs about writing include beliefs about the value and utility of writing writing competence attitudes toward writing goal orientation motives for writing identity epistemological underpinnings writing and attributions for success failure as examples Teacher motivational include these same judgements as well as beliefs about their preparation and their students competence and progress as writers to provide additional examples This Research Topic is interested in papers that examine how such beliefs operate develop are related to other cognitive and affective variables how they are impacted by instruction and how they are related to students writing performance Submitted studies can include original research both quantitative qualitative or mixed methods meta analysis and reviews of the literature

Cognitive Mechanisms of Belief Change Aaron C. T. Smith, 2016-05-22 Belief change lies at the heart of all human aspirations From career progression weight loss spiritual commitment and ideological passion to love grief war identity and sport beliefs guide our lives and to a great extent determine our success satisfaction and happiness Cognitive Mechanisms of Belief Change is relevant to anyone interested in the machinations of how this occurs It explains how certain ideas and concepts steal a place in the mind because they latch on to hardwired ways of thinking experiencing and behaving Concepts throw light upon the mind's desires which in turn casts a kaleidoscope of silhouettes against the walls of thought with those taking distinct shape forging the outlines for beliefs to inhabit Beliefs infiltrate our minds and this book shows how they arrive and change in ways critical to our sense of meaning and identity
