Sex in Schools Our Schools/Our Selves Education Foundation,1994 Introduction Susan Prentice Chapter One Don't Judge Us Too Quick Writing About Teenage Girls and Sex Susan Belyea and Karen Dubinsky Chapter Two Queer Selves Queer in Schools Young Men and Sexualities Blye Frank Chapter Three Sex at the Board or Keeping Children From Sexual Knowledge Mary Louise Adams Chapter Four Opening the Classroom Closet Dealing with Sexual Orientation at the Toronto Board of Education John Campey Tim McCaskell John Miller and Vanessa Russell Chapter Five Illicit Sexuality and Public Education 1840 1907 Bruce Curtis Chapter Six High School Confidential Ellen James Bibliography Contributors Queerly Canadian, Second Edition Scott Rayter, Laine Halpern Zisman, 2022-09-14 In the second edition of this remarkable and comprehensive anthology many of Canada's leading sexuality studies scholars examine the fundamental role that sexuality has played and continues to play in the building of our nation and in our national narratives myths and anxieties about Canadian identity Thoroughly updated this new edition features twenty six new chapters on topics including Indigenous kinship Blackness masculinity disability queer resistance and sex education Covering both historical and contemporary perspectives on nation and community law and criminal justice organizing and activism health and medicine education marriage and family sport and popular culture and representation the essays also take a strong intersectional approach integrating analyses of race class and gender This interdisciplinary collection is essential for the Canadian sexuality studies classroom and for anyone interested in the mythologies and realities of queer life in Canada FEATURES Sixty percent new and expanded content with twenty six new chapters Thoroughly updated to reflect a strong emphasis on the diversity of queer experiences and identities in Canada Each chapter includes a brief introduction written for this collection by the author that provides helpful context about their work for both students and teachers The Politics of Gender and Education S. Ali, S. Benjamin, M. Mauthner, 2003-11-25 What are the politics of gender within education How are the issues of gender being explored in diverse educational settings Does gender still matter in education This book draws together the work from an international array of authors working at the cutting edge of gender research in education From policy issues affecting single mothers to the incorporation of Southern learning into Northern contexts this collection provides a compelling argument for renewed engagement with gender issues at both macro and micro political levels within the full range of educational contexts from primary to higher education Ontario Since Confederation Edgar-Andre Montigny, Lori Chambers, 2000-12-15 Ontario Since Confederation contains some of the most recent scholarship in the field of post Confederation Ontario history This comprehensive collection the first of its kind to be published in almost a decade is intended primarily to introduce students to new areas of debate and new methodologies in Ontario history The articles range widely over the political economic and social history of the province encompassing both traditional and newly emerging topics They focus on the theme of state and society describing and articulating the interactions between social values and ideals political action and government

bureaucracies from diverse perspectives The collection raises fundamental questions about the role nature and development of the modern bureaucratic state How pervasive was the influence of the state Does the state determine or reflect social values To what degree and in what manner could the powers of the state successfully be resisted Focusing specifically on Ontario history contributors address the paradoxical relationship between provincial and national history Some essays explore the influence of the federal government on the province in areas such as pollution management native rights and welfare Other chapters discuss issues of interracial relationships the family and unwed motherhood The variety of topics and approaches represented in this collection attests to the diversity of Ontario and the rich social fabric of its history

The SAGE Handbook of Gender and Education Christine Skelton,Becky Francis,Lisa Smulyan,2006-10-23 The Handbook of Gender and Education brings together leading scholars on gender and education to provide an up to date and broad ranging guide to the field It is a comprehensive overview of different theoretical positions on equity issues in schools The contributions cover all sectors of education from early years to higher education curriculum subjects methodological and theoretical perspectives and gender identities in education Each chapter reviews synthesises and provides a critical interrogation of key contemporary themes in education This approach ensures that the book will be an indispensable source of reference for a wide range of readers students academics and practitioners The first section of the Handbook Gender Theory and Methodology outlines the various feminist perspectives on researching and exploring gender and education The section critiques the notion of gender as a category in educational research and considers recent trends evident especially in the gender and underachievement debates to locate gender difference solely within biology This section provides the broad background upon which the issues and debates in the other sections can be situated Section two Gender and Education considers the differing ways in which gender has been shown to impact upon the opportunities and experiences of pupils students teachers and other adults in the different sectors of education It also includes a chapter on single sex schooling Section three Gender and School Subjects comprises chapters that cover gender issues within the teaching and learning of particular school subjects for example maths literacy and science It also includes topics such as sex education and assessment The chapters in section four Gender identity and educational sites address up to date issues which have a long history in terms of explorations into gender and educational opportunities More recent inclusions in the debates such as disability sexuality and masculinities are discussed alongside the more traditional concerns of race social class and femininities The final section Working in Schools and Colleges illuminates the working lives of teachers and academics The chapters cover such topics as school culture career progression and development and the gendered identities of professionals within educational institutions The contributors to this book have been selected by the editors as authorities in their specific area of gender and education and are drawn from the international scholarly community

Troubled Masculinities

Kenneth James Moffatt, 2012-01-01 Through personal narratives and assessments of artistic expression the contributors present critical and inventive views of masculinity and how it is performed and interpreted in urban space Set against the backdrop of Toronto the essays engage with the global and transnational processes that affect identity and consider how the social hybridity of large cities allows individuals to work against fundamentalist and essentialist attitudes toward gender

Queer Inclusions, Continental Divisions David Morton Rayside, 2008-01-01 No area of public policy and law has seen more change than lesbian gay bi sexual and trans gender rights and none so greatly needs careful comparative analysis Queer Inclusions Continental Divisions explores the politics of sexual diversity in Canada and the United States by analyzing three contentious areas relationship recognition parenting and schooling It enters into long standing debates over Canadian American contrasts while paying close attention to regional differences David Rayside s examination of change over time in the public recognition of sexual minorities is based on his long experience with the analysis of trends as well as on a wide ranging search of media legal and social science accounts of developments across Canada and the United States Rayside points to a take off pattern in Canadian policy change on relationship recognition and parenting but not in schooling At the same time he explores the reasons for a pioneering pattern in early gains by American LGBT activists a surprising number of court wins by American lesbian and gay parents and changes in American schooling that while still modest are more substantial than those instituted by the Canadian system Queer Inclusions Continental Divisions is a timely examination of controversial policy areas in North America and a reasoned judgment on the progress of lesbian and gay issues in our time

Youth and Society Vappu Tyyskä,2014-01-02 In this essential third edition Vappu Tyysk examines the challenges faced by today s young people through a critical lens Difficult questions related to such issues as employment education social pressure identity and crime are explored by Tyysk as she paints a fascinating picture of modern youth in three countries Canada the United States and the United Kingdom The author explores the negative stereotypes surrounding young people and argues that it is time to contextualize our understanding of youth by addressing the underlying social economic and political issues they face Each of the ten revised chapters begins with a list of key learning objectives and ends with discussion questions to aid in the learning process and stimulate critical thinking This new edition incorporates updated statistics comprehensive tables and revised narratives in which the author explores topics pertinent to today s youth such as the influence of social media eating disorders and recent changes to the juvenile justice system A Country Nourished on Self-doubt Thomas Thorner,Thor Frohn-Nielsen,2010-01-01 Always illuminating often infuriating and as raw and vivid as any collection of primary materials that I ve seen assembled for students I will definitely be using the book in my survey course Christopher Pennington University of Toronto Scarborough
