A Tyranny for the Good of its Victims Andrew F. Puzder, 2025-01-14 Former CEO of CKE Restaurants Inc Andrew F Puzder exposes how the secretive consolidation of financial power under the guise of ESG represents a new collectivist threat to the free market Over the last thirty five years asset manager mega giants BlackRock State Street and Vanguard have accumulated unprecedented levels of stock ownership in virtually every major US company Voting the shares they hold for clients allows these companies to force their own environmental social and governance or ESG agenda on the American corporate sector and by extension on all of us An asset manager s traditional duty is to maximize returns for its investors but these financial elites expand their duties through stakeholder capitalism the idea that a company is responsible not only for its actual shareholders but for everyone who is affected by the company which translates to everyone in the community Thus they can impose their preferred ESG goals under the guise of benefitting an amorphous group of non investors a group that has no say over whether ESG goals actually benefit them This elite dominated economic system is nothing more than socialism in sheep s clothing ESG defines the champagne socialist agenda that would devastate the working and middle classes globally Now in the face of rising opposition these financial elites are suddenly rebranding shifting their terminology to conceal their intent A Tyranny for the Good of its Victims exposes how although they may abandon the acronym ESG these elites have pursued and will continue to pursue their ESG goals to transform our consumer driven free market economy into one that is subject to their elitist demands overriding the will of the people whom they deem incapable of self government      Sex, Race, and Class—The Perspective of Winning Selma James, 2012-05-01 In 1972 Selma James set out a new political perspective Her starting point was the millions of unwaged women who working in the home and on the land were not seen as workers and their struggles viewed as outside of the class struggle Based on her political training in the Johnson Forest Tendency founded by her late husband C L R James on movement experience South and North and on a respectful study of Marx she redefined the working class to include sectors previously dismissed as marginal For James the class struggle presents itself as the conflict between the reproduction and survival of the human race and the domination of the market with its exploitation wars and ecological devastation She sums up her strategy for change as Invest in Caring not Killing This selection spanning six decades traces the development of this perspective in the course of building an international campaigning network It includes excerpts from the classic The Power of Women and the Subversion of the Community which launched the domestic labor debate the exciting Hookers in the House of the Lord which describes a church occupation by sex workers an incisive review of the C L R James masterpiece The Black Jacobins a reappraisal of the novels of Jean Rhys and of the leadership of Julius Nyerere the groundbreaking Marx and Feminism and more The writing is lucid and without jargon The ideas never abstract spring from the experience of organising from trying to make sense of the successes and the setbacks and from the need to find a way forward      When Race Counts John Edwards, 1995 Investigates the use of race conscious practices in social policy in Britain and America and evaluates the effectiveness of a range of education and employment policies      "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2004", 2004 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020      Congressional Record United States. different jurisdictions and canvasses a variety of differing solutions As in the highly successful previous editions the book locates discrimination law within its historical and social context One of its major strengths is the development of an analytic framework of substantive equality drawing on a range of sources and the author's wide experience of equality law in many jurisdictions As well as chapters charting the social challenges and legal responses the book compares the ways in which different jurisdictions formulate grounds of discrimination or protected characteristics the meaning of key concepts such as direct discrimination disparate treatment indirect discrimination disparate impact and when limitations on equality are legitimate Later chapters test these concepts in some of the most challenging contexts pregnancy and parenting equal pay reasonable accommodation and sexual harassment as well as to the particularly controversial issue of affirmative action or deliberate preference policies Discussing at length how racism sexism LGBTQ rights and other topics impact these contexts The final chapter asks how the right to equality can be made more effective critically assessing the paradigm individual complaints model and possible alternatives from class actions and strategic litigation to mainstreaming and positive duties to promote equality

Making Sense of Affirmative Action Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen, 2020-03-30 Kasper Lippert Rasmussen here poses the question Is affirmative action morally unjustifiable As a phrase that frequently surfaces in major headlines affirmative action is a highly controversial and far reaching issue yet most of the recent scholarly literature surrounding the topic tends to focus on defending one side or another in a particular case of affirmative action Lippert Rasmussen instead takes a wide angle view addressing each of the prevailing contemporary arguments for and against affirmative action In his introduction he proposes an amended definition of affirmative action and considers what forms from quotas to outreach strategies may fall under this revised definition He then analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of each position relative to each other and applies recent discussions in political philosophy to assess if and how each argument might justify different conclusions given different cases or philosophical frameworks Each chapter investigates an argument for or against affirmative action The six arguments for it consist of compensation anti discrimination equality of opportunity role model diversity and integration The five arguments against it are reverse discrimination stigma mismatch publicity and merit Lippert Rasmussen also expands the discussion to include affirmative action for groups beyond the prototypical examples of African Americans and women and to consider health and minority languages as possible criteria for inclusion in affirmative action initiatives Based on the comparative strength of anti discrimination and equality of opportunity arguments Making Sense of Affirmative Action ultimately makes a case in favor of affirmative action however its originality lies in Lippert Rasmussen s careful exploration of moral justifiability as a contextual evaluative measure and his insistence that complexity and a comparative focus are inherent to this important issue

Situating "race" and Racisms in Time, Space, and Theory Jo-Anne Lee, John Sutton Lutz, 2005 This collection explores the strengths and weaknesses of postmodern social theory in the struggle against racism Recognizing diversity as a conduit for resilience endurance and strength the editors have tried to encourage coalition building by bringing together historians sociologists cultural theorists and literary scholars in dialogue with artists and activists Topics considered include nation formation racialized states cultural racism multiculturalism hyphenated and mixed race identities media and representation and shifting identities

Measuring Underemployment Clifford C. Clogg, 2013-10-22 Measuring Underemployment Demographic Indicators for the United States discusses the Labor Utilization Framework of Hauser and Sullivan which is a measurement scheme that posits the existence of three dimensions or forms of underemployment time income and skill utilization This book describes the conceptual groundwork operational measurement and implications of the Labor Utilization Framework on the way the labor force aggregates The essential elements of the socio demographic theory of the labor force with the logical unity provided by both the Labor Utilization Framework and the specific methodologies adopted for its analysis are also elaborated This text likewise covers the methods for latent structure analysis and cohort analysis including the theory of frictional underemployment class structure governing the distribution of labor market rewards tempo of social change in the labor force productive value of a population and true dependency on productive labor This publication is a good source for students and researchers concerned with different labor force topics that can be plausibly studied from the viewpoint of the Hauser Sullivan framework
