Long Nights:

For the Sun After Long Nights Fatemeh Jamalpour, Nilo Tabrizy, 2025-09-16 A moving exploration of the 2022 women led protests in Iran as told through the interwoven stories of two Iranian journalists Unlike anything I've read A searing courageous and ultimately beautiful book filled with the spirit of the movement that it covers Ben Rhodes author of The World as It Is A Memoir of the Obama White House In September 2022 a young Kurdish woman Mahsa Jina Amini died after being beaten by police officers who arrested her for not adhering to the Islamic Republic's dress code Her death galvanized thousands of Iranians mostly women who took to the streets in one of the country's largest uprisings in decades the Woman Life Freedom movement Despite the threat of imprisonment or death for her work as a journalist covering political unrest state repression and grassroots activism in Iran which has led to multiple interrogation sessions and arrests Fatemeh Jamalpour joined the throngs of people fighting to topple Iran's religious extremist regime And across the globe Nilo Tabrizy who emigrated from Iran with her family as a child covered the protests and state violence knowing that spotlighting the women on the front lines and the systemic injustice of the Iranian government meant she would not be able to safely return to Iran in the future Though they had met only once in person Nilo and Fatemeh corresponded constantly often through encrypted platforms to protect Fatemeh As the protests continued to unfold the sense of sisterhood they shared led them to embark on an effort to document the spirit and legacy of the movement and the history geopolitics and influences that led to this point At once deeply personal and assiduously reported For the Sun After Long Nights offers two perspectives on what it means to cover the stories that are closest to one's heart both in the forefront and from afar
