Lord Of The Dawn Quetzalcoatl And The Tree Of Life:

Lord of the Dawn ,1971 This is a love story and its history lies deep in the heart of Ancient America The story is set within the framework of a terrible and wonderful prophecy the Prophecy of the Thirteen Heavens and the Nine Hells The Little People Pockwatchies and Tlaloques were believed to be the servants of the Rain God Tlaloc and thus guardians of the Earth Mother These all appear in the song found in this book about the Quetzalcoatl a Great One who brought spiritual awareness and enlightenment to the Indians of America He founded a new religion based on peace and changed the face of Ancient America by religious and social reform He founded the first Confederation of the Tree and laid down the prophecy which this book is about

Journey to Aztlantica Richard S. Flores,2013-11-15 THE JOURNEY TO ATLANTICA Aztlantica is the spiritual homeland of the Meso America Quetzalcoatl Prophecy The Journey attempts to bring forth new insights hidden history and a future in peril The Journey to Aztlantica is a call for awakening and the need to transition from an old degenerating world to the promise of a sustainable a new world that will be able to survive the perils of the future The Journey expresses concern about the degenerating trajectory of capitalistic economic and political systems About their questionable influence on the future stabilities of world societies and governments The old world economic worldview has reached its limitation It is on the path of regression and is conducive to social dis integration This book alludes to the need for individuals to prepare themselves to confront and survive the calamities of climatic change and man made calamities of the future The Journey calls for human evolution For the building of an alternative economic system as a way to change the human character and behavior A system that would support the principles of natural human evolution a more equalitarian society and would support the development of a humanitarian worldview The Journey proposes the establishment of new social cultural educational and spiritual models It calls for establishing a philosophical model based on a respectful and balanced relationship with the natural environment and within the human community The Journey proposes a new spiritual movement for the new world an organized religion that would be compatible with the new worldview of Aztlantica The old religions are an integral part of a degenerating old world Aztlantica calls for the refinement and rejuvenation of human cultures in order to promote respect peace balance and harmony around the world The Journey stresses the need to crossover to a new worldview reality the circular worldview In order for humanity to survive adequately in a perilous future and in order to create a sustainable world in which the human community can live prosper and advance individuals must first transform themselves before they can transform into the future

Dancing for the Fat Lady Ray Drake,2013-11-07 This is the story of my journey from a university psychology department to public mental health and private practice and on to being a psychologist in Indian land It includes of course the many interesting people novel experiences and challenging ideas I encountered along the way It is a story of expanding spiritual awareness and growth as a human being and the part played in that by the Chippewa Ojibwa Indians whose own practice of faith clearly embodies Jesus teachings on how to live with reverence gratitude humility and grace The discovery of their faith was an immense surprise and an unexpected joy Eventually I was called in dreams to Sundance in Canada a calling that also included dancing in other ceremonies which like the Sundance required four days of fasting and prayer I attempt to convey to the reader some of the learning and growth that are inevitable when one dances in a sacred arbor filled with kind souls and the Creators unconditional love and yet I know full well that words merely hint at what can be learned only through experience When I answered the call to Sundance who could have known that as a dancer helper and eventual leader I would spend the next eighteen years of my life in those sacred arbors I was fifty two when I first danced and a couple of weeks shy of seventy when last I dragged the buffalo skulls My dear wife pursued her own calling to teach children and wound up teaching many years in a nearby Indian school She made this journey ours by her loving constancy faith courage and support She was the first and best of the joy filled surprises the Creator had for me when He moved me out of the university world

Lord of the Dawn Rudolfo A.
