Jules Verne, 1875 Player Won-Lost Records in Baseball Tom Thress, 2017-08-23 Baseball analysts often criticize pitcher win loss records as a poor measure of pitcher performance as wins are the product of team performance Fans criticize WAR Wins Above Replacement because it takes in theoretical rather than actual wins Player won lost records bridge the gap between these two schools of thought giving credit to all players for what they do without credit or blame for teammates performance and measuring contributions to actual team wins and losses The result is a statistic of player value that quantifies all aspects of individual performance allowing for robust comparisons between players across different positions and different seasons Using play by play data this book examines players won lost records in Major League Baseball from 1930 through 2015 Marxism in a Lost Century Gary Roth, 2014-12-22 Marxism in a Lost Century retells the history of the radical left during the twentieth century through the words and deeds of Paul Mattick An adolescent during the German revolutions that followed World War I he was also a recent migr to the United States during the 1930s Great Depression when the unemployed groups in which he participated were among the most dynamic manifestations of social unrest Three biographical themes receive special attention the self taught nature of left wing activity Mattick s experiences with publishing and the nexus of men politics and friendship Mattick found a wide audience during the 1960s because of his emphasis on the economy s dysfunctional aspects and his advocacy of workplace councils a popularity mirrored in the cyclical nature of the global economy Books and Travel Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2012-07-20 The books that we read whether travel focused or not may influence the way in which we understand the process or experience of travel This multidisciplinary work provides a critical analysis of the inspirational and transformational role that books play in travel imaginings Does reading a book encourage us to think of travel as exotic adventurous transformative dangerous or educative Do different genres of books influence a reader s view of travel in multifarious ways These questions are explored through a literary analysis of an eclectic selection of books spanning the period from the eighteenth century to the present day Genres covered include historical fiction children s books westerns science fiction and crime fiction Quality Fogg's Old Ledger Mrs. Prosser (Sophie Amelia), 1889 How He Lost Her, Or, True Love Never Runs Smooth Jonathan Barrett, 1887 Literature and Living Rollo La Verne Lyman, Howard Copeland Hill, 1925 Around the World in Eighty Days.
