culture is experiencing today it's more important than ever to find ways for families to come together as a strong unit. Competitive youth sports offer families ideal opportunities to support our kids, instill character, and teach lessons that will serve our children both now and in the future, all in a fun and natural setting. Unfortunately, many of us don't take full advantage of these sports experiences because we don't know how to begin. Drawing from a rich background in sports, parenting, and family development, World Series hero Jim Sundberg and his wife Janet teach that the sports experience can provide unique opportunities for kids to deal with emotions and develop the skills necessary for healthy, life-enhancing interactions with others. But for this to happen, moms and dads need a practical plan. The Sundbergs will help you build that plan by showing you How to Win at Sports Parenting. Discover how to help your children enjoy to the fullest the sports they play. Learn valuable sports-to-life lessons. Deal with game-day emotions in a healthy manner. Develop crucial skills they will use the rest of their lives. From the Trade Paperback edition.
