Weinbaum,2016-04-21 Here is the story that presented virtual reality to the world Dan Berk meets an Elfin professor who has invented a pair of goggles that allow the wearer to enter completely into the action of a story Sometimes it can be hard to remember that it isn't real or is it The American Catalogue ,1880 American national trade bibliography Middle English Marvels Tara Williams,2018-01-03 This multidisciplinary volume illustrates how representations of magic in fourteenth century romances link the supernatural spectacle and morality in distinctive ways Supernatural marvels represented in vivid visual detail are foundational to the characteristic Middle English genres of romance and hagiography In Middle English Marvels Tara Williams explores the didactic and affective potential of secular representations of magic and shows how fourteenth century English writers tested the limits of that potential Drawing on works by Augustine Gervase of Tilbury Chaucer and the anonymous poets of Sir Orfeo and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight among others Williams examines how such marvels might convey moral messages within and beyond the narrative She analyzes examples from both highly canonical and more esoteric texts and examines marvels that involve magic and transformation invoke visual spectacle and invite moral reflection on how one should relate to others Within this shared framework Williams finds distinct concerns chivalry identity agency and language that intersect with the marvelous in significant ways Integrating literary and historical approaches to the study of magic this volume convincingly shows how certain fourteenth century texts eschewed the predominant trends and developed a new theory of the marvelous Williams's engaging erudite study will be of special interest to scholars of the occult the medieval and early modern eras and literature The Magic Spectacles. A Fairy Story Chauncey GILES,1873 Frostgrave: Thaw of the Lich Lord Joseph A. Scenography and Design Publication Award The Director's Prism investigates how and why three of Russia's most innovative directors Vsevolod Meyerhold Alexander Tairov and Sergei Eisenstein used the fantastical tales of German Romantic writer E T A Hoffmann to reinvent the rules of theatrical practice Because the rise of the director and the Russian cult of Hoffmann closely coincided Posner argues many characteristics we associate with avant garde theater subjective perspective breaking through the fourth wall activating the spectator as a co creator become uniquely legible in the context of this engagement Posner examines the artistic poetics of Meyerhold's grotesque Tairov's mime drama and Eisenstein's theatrical attraction through production analyses based on extensive archival research that challenge the notion of theater as a mirror to life instead viewing the director as a prism through whom life is refracted A resource for scholars and practitioners alike this groundbreaking study provides a fresh provocative perspective on experimental theater intercultural borrowings and the nature of the creative process

however thought it necessary for her to learn to sew and a part of two days in the week was spent in doing it Now she thought if I can see how to do my sewing well and can learn to like it I shall know for certain that I have some new and magical power She took up her work with more interest than usual though it was more difficult and trying than she had ever attempted before Her mother prepared her work for her told her how to do it and cautioned her to be patient and do it as nicely as she could Now I shall need my spectacles she said to herself and I must remember how to use them One thing at a time That is certainly good advice in sewing Look sharp That I must do or I shall get the stitches long and short
