Magic Johnson Basketballs Smiling Superstar Taking Part:

Magic Johnson Rick L. Johnson, 1992 A biography of the star guard for the Los Angeles Lakers who shocked fans by retiring in 1991 because he had contracted the AIDS virus Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 Books in Print Supplement, 1994 African-American Sports Greats David L. Porter, 1995-10-30 African American athletes have played a significant role in the development and popularity of American professional sports and have encountered numerous obstacles on the road to athletic success This is the first comprehensive multi sport biographical dictionary of African Americans who reached the pinnacles of success in their sport It contains more personal and career profiles of African American sports greats than are found in any other single source Biographical profiles of 166 noted athletes coaches and administrators in team and individual sports include both Ristorical figures such as Jesse Owens and Satchel Paige and contemporary stars such as Charles Barkley Ken Griffey Jr Michael Jordan Jackie Joyner Kersee Shaquille O Neal and Emmitt Smith Forty four sports historians contributed the colorfully written biographies which blend both personal background information and athletic career accomplishments All information is current through the middle of 1995 The dictionary covers the contributions made by African American greats in football baseball basketball track and field boxing wrestling auto and stock car racing golf thoroughbred racing tennis cycling and figure skating More than two thirds of the entries represent team sports The dictionary is organized alphabetically by person Each colorfully written profile is 800 1 000 words in length and traces the subject s personal life family and educational background personal struggles career accomplishments records set statistical data awards and honors and overall impact and features lively quotations by and about the sports luminaries Each entry contains a handy bibliography of books and articles about the subject Biographies of managers coaches and club executives describe their teams statistical achievements accomplishments strategy and sports impact A general introduction traces the historic struggle of African American athletes in professional and Olympic sports and appendices provide alphabetical listings of biographical entries and entries by sport A selection of photos complement the profiles For the sports fan or librarian this is a first stop for biographical information that captures the personality of the athlete and includes all the pertinent information about his or her accomplishments It is an essential addition to the reference sections of junior high high school and public libraries AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger, 2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual s bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it

Subject Guide to Children's Books In Print, 1996 R R Bowker Publishing,1996 Jet ,1991-11-25 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Perspectives on the Educational Experiences of African/Caribbean Boys Nisheet Gosai,2011-09-22 This study critically explores contemporary African Caribbean boys 15 16 years old educational experiences in the UK It focuses on their lives from both within and outside the school Various research methods are employed in order to gain a comprehensive picture that includes the accounts of African Caribbean boys parents teachers and youth workers The study explores both the boys positive and negative experiences of school life At one level the boys narratives suggest a nothing but the same old story of racial exclusion and subordination within urban secondary schools At another level we hear of the importance of education in their lives Of particular significance is the evidence of how black supplementary schools and youth organisations are providing an educational space that positively supports them in their transition into adulthood The study makes recommendations for educationalists and policy makers based on the findings This includes the need to understand the boys experiences of racial exclusion and the complexities around the intersection of race gender and class for a younger generation at the start of the twenty first century In comparing mainstream and supplementary educational spaces the boys identify the need to build an inclusive mainstream curriculum that represents the historical past and cultural present of their lives Importantly the study vividly highlights contrasting teacher pupil interactions between these two educational spaces suggesting what the former can learn from the latter
