Gosden,2020-11-10 An Oxford professor of archaeology explores the unique history of magic the oldest and most neglected strand of human behavior and its resurgence today Three great strands of belief run through human history Religion is the relationship with one god or many gods masters of our lives and destinies Science distances us from the world turning us into observers and collectors of knowledge And magic is direct human participation in the universe we have influence on the world around us and the world has influence on us Over the last few centuries magic has developed a bad reputation thanks to the unsavory tactics of shady practitioners and to a successful propaganda campaign on the part of religion and science which denigrated magic as backward irrational and primitive In Magic however the Oxford professor of archaeology Chris Gosden restores magic to its essential place in the history of the world revealing it to be an enduring element of human behavior that plays an important role for individuals and cultures From the curses and charms of ancient Greek Roman and Jewish magic to the shamanistic traditions of Eurasia indigenous America and Africa from the alchemy of the Renaissance to the condemnation of magic in the colonial period and the mysteries of modern quantum physics Gosden s startling fun and colorful history supplies a missing chapter of the story of our civilization Drawing on decades of research around the world touching on the first known horoscope a statue ordered into exile and the mystical power of tattoos Gosden shows what magic can offer us today and how we might use it to rethink our relationship with the world Magic is an original singular and sweeping work of scholarship and its revelations will leave a spell on the reader Camouflage Australia Ann

Elias,2018-08-30 Camouflage Australia provides international context for the historical circumstances and events of the organisation of camouflage in World War II in Australia and the Pacific region She elaborates on the parallel involvement of British and American artists in the field of concealment and deception and reveals the widespread interest shown by western naturalists and scientists in the application to warfare of the behaviours and aesthetics of animals Australian Aboriginal Religion Ronald Murray Berndt,1974 This work is a serious anthropological study of Australian Aboriginal religion It is designed to be read by adults and is primarily for use in universities and or similar institutions It is not therefore for use in schools Where Australian Aborigines are concerned and in areas where traditional Aboriginal religion is still significant this book should be used only after consultation with local male religious leaders This restriction is important It is imposed because the concept of what is secret or may not be revealed to the uninitiated in Aboriginal religious belief and action varies considerably throughout the Australian continent And because the varying views of Aborigines in this respect must on all occasions be observed January 30th 1973 Ronald M Berndt Natives of Australia Northcote W.
