Magic Realism Rediscovered, 1918-1981 Seymour Menton, 1983 The Magic Realism of Paul Bond Paul Bond, 2015-02-10 The Magic Realism Oil Paintings of Paul Bond paired with his insightful written descriptions Robert Vickrey Philip Eliasoph, Robert Vickrey, 2008 Robert Vickrey's unique vision and meticulous painstaking technique have sustained him throughout a sixty year career He is widely considered to be a living master of using egg tempera the same labor intensive medium used by Renaissance painters including Giotto and Cennini But Vickrey's concerns are distinctly twentieth century in the subjects and themes he has chosen from childhood innocence to the dichotomy of urban versus country living A quintessential Realist Vickrey

endeavoured to explore the human condition within a distinctively American environment writes author Philip Eliasoph whose essay argues that Vickrey's work builds a bridge from Surrealism and New Objectivity to Magic Realism Described by the New York Times as the world's most proficient craftsman in tempera painting and an immaculate technician Vickrey's oeuvre is the fiercely independent work of one of its most unorthodox and even most daring inventors according to Eliasoph

AUTHOR Philip Eliasoph is a professor of art history at Fairfield University Virginia M Mecklenburg is Senior Curator of the Smithsonian American Art Museum in Washington D C

SELLING POINTS A comprehensive survey of the 60 year career of a master of tempera painting an artist who has been included in nine Whitney Museum of American Art Annual Exhibitions 80 color plates show off the brilliant light infused compositions of Vickrey's paintings Includes scholarly essays placing Vickrey in the context of the twentieth century American art 128 colour 43 b w illustrations

Maruja Mallo and the Spanish Avant-Garde Shirley Mangini, 2017-07-05 The first book in English on Maruja Mallo this volume is an insightful examination of the life and work of this seminal artist of the Spanish avant garde Previously sidelined by a culture that treated women as insider outsiders and by her own mythmaking Mallo no longer can be viewed as simply a muse to famous counterparts such as Salvador Dalí and Federico García Lorca her role has been re-contextualized to demonstrate that she was a driving force in the flowering of Spanish culture through the 1920s and 1930s The analysis of Mallo's unique life and extraordinary art is set against the complicated social and political backdrop of interwar Madrid This book highlights the struggle of Mallo and other women artists against the rampant misogyny of both Spanish culture and the avant garde community of the time The effects of the Spanish Civil War are also analyzed in Mallo's case Franco's victory forced her into exile in South America for almost 30 years with profound effects on her art and her life Added to this rich context the author's numerous interviews with members of the Mallo family provide essential new background material

Maruja Mallo and the Spanish Avant Garde recasts this artist as a vital figure in the heretofore all male establishment of the Spanish artistic vanguard

Cinema and the Political Imagination Robin Truth Goodman, 2024-12-04 Highlighting the importance of Third Cinema on twenty first century political filmmaking this book examines films that have adopted Third Cinema's experimental film techniques for the purpose of political intervention The text explores the legacy of Third Cinema on more traditional cinema and Robin Truth Goodman examines how Third Cinema's cinematic reinvention of the image as a political springboard is still being utilized by contemporary filmmakers In exploring the relationship between political subjectivity and cinematic practice through a variety of contemporary case studies Goodman also looks at topics not previously examined by Third Cinema The book focuses on the multiple internationalisms of borders and cities and treats gender as a vector through which different directions in a political field can be imagined Finally while linking a mid twentieth century tradition of filmmaking to contemporary problems of the political the book considers the politics of representation through the representation of politics reflecting on what makes an image political and what inspires us to identify with it A compelling read for students and scholars interested in Third Cinema Cinema and Politics and Cinema and Subversion and anyone interested in exploring the connections between Third Cinema and contemporary political filmmaking
