

May Magnificat

May is Mary's month, and I
Muse at that and wonder why:
Her feasts follow reason,
Dated due to season—

Candlemas, Lady Day;
But the Lady Month, May,
Why fasten that upon her,
With a feasting in her honour?

Is it only its being brighter
Than the most are must delight her?
Is it opportunist
And flowers finds soonest?

Ask of her, the mighty mother:
Her reply puts this other
Question: What is Spring?—
Growth in every thing—

Flesh and fleece, fur and feather,
Grass and greenworld all together;
Star-eyed strawberry-breasted
Throstle above her nested

Cluster of bugle blue eggs thin
Forms and warms the life within;
And bird and blossom swell
In sod or sheath or shell.

All things rising, all things sizing
Mary sees, sympathising
With that world of good,
Nature's motherhood.

Their magnifying of each its kind
With delight calls to mind
How she did in her stored
Magnify the Lord.

Well but there was more than this:
Spring's universal bliss
Much, had much to say
To offering Mary May.

Magnificat Poems:

Magnificat Marilyn Nelson, 1994 Poems with a religious theme the approach ranging from devotional to skeptical In Sayings of the Desert Fathers which is about a holy fool she writes Big deal said Abba Jacob Miracles happen all the time We re here aren t we Magnificat Russell Rowland, 2023-04-04 poetry Marian Poem-Prayers in the Modern Age Jean Ward, 2025-10-16 This book explores a range of twentieth and twenty first century poem prayers directed to or involving Mary In readings of works by T S Eliot David Jones Geoffrey Hill Elizabeth Jennings Hilary Davies Rowan Williams and others Ward traces the resurgence of interest in Mary from the late nineteenth century to the present day By the early twentieth century the once widespread and fervent cult of the Virgin Mary had for more than three hundred years been largely absent from England s religious life Similarly the figure of Mary had almost vanished from English poetry only to return gradually as Marian devotion began to revive in the nineteenth century The perception of this devotion as somehow un English dominant since the Reformation presented a challenge to poets engaged with the Marian theme in the modern day Marian Poem Prayers in the Modern Age examines how male and female poets from both Roman Catholic and Anglican backgrounds responded to this situation The book also argues that the figure of Mary is a type of John Henry Newman s category of real assent commitment that is not merely intellectual but involves the totality of a person s being in relation to God The Major Latin Poems of Jacopo Sannazaro Jacopo Sannazaro, 1996 This work contains prose translation of the poems of Neo Latin poet Jacopo Sannazaro 1458 1530 whose work provides insights into Renaissance art literature and socio political history The text also examines topics such as his influence on the development of English poetry Body-Poetics of the Virgin Mary Jane Petkovic, 2021-05-25 The Judeo Christian scriptures understand humans as being made in the image of God What exactly does this mean Basic agreement is that it means humans can only know and understand themselves in relation to God If however this God is pure uncreated spirit where does human embodiment fit in Is it an obstacle to understanding Or is it in some way instructive John Paul II comes down decisively in favor of the body s value and importance In his catechetical series widely known as the Theology of the Body John Paul II analyzes what is distinctive about human beings He undertakes a reading of the body This book reflects on John Paul II s interpretation extending his findings to the Virgin Mary Her specifically female maternal body is seen to offer insights into how the body images God in how it speaks The transformations of the female body parallel the transformations of language in poetry The reconfigurations and accommodations of the gestational body are this book suggests poetic incarnations of God likeness Body Poetics of the Virgin Mary offers a Mariological slant on theological anthropology and a new way to think of how humans poetically image God

Poems and Carols (Oxford, Bodleian Library MS Douce 302) John the Blind Audelay, 2009-10-01 Audelay s idiosyncratic devotional tastes interesting personal life history and declared political affiliations loyalty to king upholder of estates anxiety over heresy make him worthy of careful study beside his better known contemporaries Of particular note MS

Douce 302 preserves Audelay's own alliterative Marcolf and Solomon a poem thought to be descended from Langland's Piers Plowman. The Audelay Manuscript also contains unique copies of other alliterative poems of the ornate style seen in Gawain and the Green Knight and The Pistel of Swete Susan. These pieces are Paternoster and Three Dead Kings both set at the end of the book. Whether or not they are Audelay's own compositions they seem certain to be his own selections. Audelay also displays a persistent habit of sequencing materials in generic and devotionally affective ways. His is a pious sensibility delicately honed by reverence for the liturgy and by an awe of God. That Audelay's poetry can awaken us to new poetic sensitivities in medieval devotional verse is reason enough to bring him into the ambit of canonical fifteenth century English poets.

Twenty Poems to Pray Gary M. Bouchard, 2019-08-01 Drawing from the poetry of generations of esteemed writers Gary Bouchard shows how poems often express the longings of the human heart as a kind of prayer. Emily Dickinson, Rev. Rowan Williams, Pope John Paul II, Christina Rossetti, Robert Frost, and Fr. Kilian McDonnell OSB among others offer readers an inspiring path to reflect upon and pray with poetic verse. Arranged under six engaging themes, each selection uses the words of poets as vehicles to prompt heaven in ordinary or to praise like exalted manna to find the right paraphrase for your own soul or maybe sense your soul's blood to muster up from your grief or anger, reversed thunder or dare to articulate from your own personal anguish. Christ side piercing spear.

The Oxford Anthology of African-American Poetry Arnold Rampersad, Hilary Herbold, 2006 Presents a comprehensive anthology of African American poetry covering over two centuries and includes selections by Langston Hughes, Gwendolyn Brooks, W. E. B. Du Bois and many more.

The Fields of Praise: Poems, Bodies in a Broken World Ann Folwell Stanford, 2004-07-21 In this multidisciplinary study Ann Folwell Stanford reads literature written by U.S. women of color to propose a rethinking of modern medical practice, arguing that personal health and social justice are inextricably linked. Drawing on feminist ethics to explore the work of eleven novelists, Stanford challenges medicine to position itself more deeply within the communities it serves, especially the poor and marginalized. However, she also argues that medicine must recognize its limits and join forces with the nonmedical community in the struggle for social justice. In literary representations of physical and emotional states of illness and health, Stanford identifies issues related to public health, medical ethics, institutionalized racism, women's health, domestic abuse, and social justice that are important to discussions about how to improve health and health care. She argues that in either direct or indirect ways the eleven novelists considered here push us to see health not only as an individual condition but also as a complex network of individual, institutional, and social changes in which wellness can be a possibility for the majority rather than a privileged few. The novelists whose works are discussed are Toni Cade Bambara, Paule Marshall, Gloria Naylor, Leslie Marmon Silko, Toni Morrison, Louise Erdrich, Sandra Cisneros, Bebe Moore Campbell, Sapphire, Ana Castillo, and Octavia Butler.
