Martial Arts Cinema and Hong Kong Modernity Man-Fung Yip, 2017-09-05 At the core of Martial Arts Cinema and Hong Kong Modernity Aesthetics Representation Circulation is a fascinating paradox the martial arts film long regarded as a vehicle of Chinese cultural nationalism can also be understood as a mass cultural expression of Hong Kong s modern urban industrial society This important and popular genre Man Fung Yip argues articulates the experiential qualities the competing social subjectivities and gender discourses as well as the heightened circulation of capital people goods information and technologies in Hong Kong of the 1960s and 1970s In addition to providing a novel conceptual framework for the study of Hong Kong martial arts cinema and shedding light on the nexus between social change and cultural aesthetic form this book offers perceptive analyses of individual films including not only the canonical works of King Hu Chang Cheh and Bruce Lee but also many lesser known ones by Lau Kar leung and Chor Yuen among others that have not been adequately discussed before Thoroughly researched and lucidly written Yip s stimulating study will ignite debates in new directions for both scholars and fans of Chinese language martial arts cinema Yip subjects critical clichés to rigorous examination moving beyond generalized notions of martial arts cinema s appeal and offering up informed scrutiny of every facet of the genre He has the ability to encapsulate these films particularities with cogent examples and at the same time demonstrate a thorough familiarity with the historical context in which this endlessly fascinating genre arose David Desser professor emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Eschewing a reductive chronology Yip offers a persuasive detailed and sophisticated excavation of martial arts cinema which is read through and in relation to rapid transformation of Hong Kong in the 1960s and 1970s An exemplar of critical genre study this book represents a significant contribution to the discipline Yvonne Tasker professor of film studies and dean of the Faculty of Arts and Humanities University of East Anglia Asian Cinemas Dimitris Eleftheriotis, Gary Needham, 2006-03-31 The West's current fascination with Asian cinema must be viewed in the context of a complex and often problematic relationship between Western scholars students viewers and Asian films This book examines a number of detailed case studies such as the films of Ozu Bruce Lee Hong Kong and Turkish cinema Hindi melodramas Godzilla films Taiwanese directors and Fifth Generation Chinese cinema and uses them to investigate the limitations of Anglo U S theoretical models and critical paradigms By engaging readers with familiar areas of critical discourse such as postcolonial criticism national cinema genre authorship and stardom the book aims to introduce within such contexts the unfamiliar case studies that will be explored in depth and detail The Art of Needle-Work, from the earliest ages; including some notices of the ancient historical tapestries.
