Magnum Cinema:

The Cinema of Stephen Chow Gary Bettinson, Vivian P.Y. Lee, 2024-09-05 An in depth exploration of the stardom and authorship of Stephen Chow Sing chi one of Hong Kong cinema's most enduringly popular stars and among its most commercially successful directors In the West Stephen Chow is renowned as the ground breaking director and star of global blockbusters such as Kung Fu Hustle 2004 and Shaolin Soccer 2001 Among Hong Kong audiences Chow is celebrated as the leading purveyor of local comedy popularising the so called mo lei tau gibberish brand of Cantonese vernacular humour and cultivating a style of madcap comedy that often masks a trenchant social commentary This volume approaches Chow from a diverse range of critical perspectives Each of the essays written by a host of renowned international scholars offers compelling new interpretations of familiar hits such as From Beijing with Love 1994 and Journey to the West 2013 The detailed case studies of seminal local and global movies provide overdue critical attention to Chow's filmmaking highlighting the aesthetic power economic significance and cultural impact of his films in both domestic and global markets Cinema Graham Tarrant, 2015-08-13 Have you ever wondered what year Alfred Hitchcock released his first film which film made the biggest box office loss of all time or who were the first actors to receive separate Oscars for playing the same role This fascinating miscellany contains the answers to these questions and more Packed with profiles of the heroes and villains of film explorations of genre statistics and infographics Cinema is perfect for any movie buff who loves the storytelling magic of the silver screen The Cinema of John Milius Alfio Leotta, 2018-12-06 This book is devoted to the critical study of the cinema of John Milius filling a major gap in the literature by combining the examination of the artistic historical and cultural significance of Milius work with an in depth analysis of his films Although most contemporary film viewers have forgotten him John Milius has been one of the most influential and controversial film makers in the history of American cinema Along with the likes of George Lucas Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese Milius was a central figure of the so called New Hollywood Milius who gained an Academy Award nomination as screenwriter for Apocalypse Now 1979 reached the apex of his directorial career in the 1980s with films such as Conan the Barbarian 1982 and Red Dawn 1984 More recently he was involved in a series of innovative projects such as the creation of the HBO series Rome 2005 2007 and the invention of the Ultimate Fighting Championship A History of Italian Cinema Peter Bondanella, Federico Pacchioni, 2017-10-19 A History of Italian Cinema 2nd edition is the much anticipated update from the author of the bestselling Italian Cinema which has been published in four landmark editions and will celebrate its 35th anniversary in 2018 Building upon decades of research Peter Bondanella and Federico Pacchioni reorganize the current History in order to keep the book fresh and responsive not only to the actual films being created in Italy in the twenty first century but also to the rapidly changing priorities of Italian film studies and film scholars The new edition brings the definitive history of the subject from the birth of cinema to the present day up to date with a revised filmography as well as more focused attention on the melodrama the crime film and the historical drama The book is expanded to include a new generation of directors as well as to highlight themes such as gender issues immigration and media politics Accessible comprehensive and heavily illustrated throughout this is an essential purchase for any fan of Italian film

Fear City Cinema Roger A. Salerno, 2022-04-12 This book studies a grouping of films set in New York City between 1965 and 1995 reflecting a town besieged by rampant criminality social distress and physical decay Fear City is a term the NYPD used to label New York as a frightening environment incapable of securing the safety of its residents This book not only deals with the social problems evident in New York during this period but also provides a study of how independent filmmakers were able to capture unsettling urban imagery capitalizing on feelings of paranoia and dread The author explores how the tone of these films reflects upon the anti urbanism that led to the War on Crime the mass exodus of working class people from the city and mass incarceration of young Black men

A Medium Seen Otherwise Roger Hallas, 2023 Through a new look at how political historical and art documentaries engage with photographic images objects and archives A Medium Seen Otherwise argues that film allows us to better understand what people do with analog and digital photographs as material objects that enable social and political relations through multisensory experience Moreover as a time based medium with sound film can bring the event of photography into fuller view demonstrating how no single participant in it photographer subject camera photograph or viewer has sovereignty over its affect meaning or value The book thus explores the ways in which the innovative incorporation of photography into documentary film permits us to see both of these media otherwise Photographs whether professional or vernacular are conventionally understood to furnish documentaries with indexical evidence and visual illustration of history yet the spatio temporal and aural dimensions of film permit documentaries to illuminate photography's wider capacities beyond the merely representational Combining new critical perspectives on well known documentary filmmakers and photographers Agnès Varda Rithy Panh Edward Burtynsky Malick Sidib Vivian Maier JR Ken Burns Errol Morris and Akram Zaatari with analyses of lesser known but important documentaries author Roger Hallas investigates a global range of documentary and vernacular photographic contexts including Lebanon Palestine Mali Congo Cambodia Ireland Spain Mexico Chile Canada and the US While authorship and representation remain common rhetorical frameworks for documentaries about photography A Medium Seen Otherwise offers a compelling account of how the intermediality between documentary film and photography can posit far more expansive conceptions of both media A companion website shows clips of films discussed in the book

The Cinema of Clint Eastwood David Sterritt, 2014-11-25 He became a movie star playing The Man With No Name and today his name is known around the world Measured by longevity productivity and profits Clint Eastwood is the most successful actor director producer in American film history This book examines the major elements of his career focusing primarily on his work as a director but also exploring the evolution of his acting style his long association with screen violence his interest in jazz and the political views sometimes hotly controversial reflected in his films and public statements Especially fascinating is the pivotal question that divides critics and moviegoers to this day is Eastwood a capable director with a photogenic face a modest acting talent and a flair for marketing his image Or is he a true cinematic auteur with a distinctive vision of America s history traditions and values From A Fistful of Dollars and Dirty Harry to Million Dollar Baby and beyond The Cinema of Clint Eastwood takes a close up look at one of the screen s most influential and charismatic stars To-day's Cinema News and Property Gazette ,1915 Mahatma Gandhi in Cinema Narendra Kaushik,2020-04-16 This book analyses 100 years of Hindi cinema India s principal film industry to explore how much space it has given to Mahatma Gandhi the most prominent leader of the Indian struggle for freedom and his principles It compares films on Gandhi with the written literature on him and juxtaposes the celluloid Gandhi with the man who walked on the earth ever in flesh and blood From his childhood through his legal practice in South Africa to his non violent struggle against the British Empire in India the book covers all major events of his life and their portrayal on the silver screen Contemporary American Cinema Williams , Linda Ruth,Hammond , Michael,2006-05-01 This is a comprehensive introduction to post classical American film Covering American cinema since 1960 the text looks at both Hollywood and non mainstream cinema
