Mahmud Shaltut And Islamic Modernism:

Mahmud Shaltut and Islamic modernism Kate Zebiri,1996 Maḥmūd Shaltūt and Islamic Modernism Kate Zebiri, Lecturer in Arabic and Islamic Studies at the School of Oriental and African Studies Kate Zebiri,1993 This is the first detailed study of the life and thought of Shaykh Mahmud Shaltut 1897 1963 Shaltut was an Egyptian scholar and reformer who held the most senior position open to Sunni Muslim religious scholars that of Rector of the Azhar University in Cairo His period of office 1958 63 was a turbulent time in Egypt and within the Azhar itself with President Nasser's socialist government initiating a radical reorganization of that institution in accordance with its policy of exerting greater control over the forces of Islam in Egypt One of the most popular and progressive Rectors of the Azhar in recent times his writings have received extremely wide readership throughout the Muslim world They reflect both his traditional religious background and his great concern with the contemporary problems of Muslims thus providing an insight into some of the tensions which arise in the confrontation with modernity In his important work in the areas of Islamic jurisprudence and Qur'anic commentary he strove to demystify Islamic scholarship and make its fruits available to ordinary Muslims He issued fatwas on a wide range of topics of particular relevance in the modern age such as financial transactions and family planning By focusing on the work of an essentially traditional religious scholar this study will fill a serious gap in modern Islamic studies Set against the wider context of the cultural and revolutionary changes of Egypt at this time it will also provide valuable insights for students charting the development of the modern Middle East

A Comparative History of Catholic and Aṣ'arī Theologies of Truth and Salvation Mohammed Gamal Abdelnour,2021-05-25 In A Comparative History of Catholic and Aṣ'arī Theologies of Truth and Salvation Mohammed Gamal Abdelnour analytically and critically compares the historical development of the Catholic theologies of truth and salvation with those of its Islamic counterpart Aṣ'arism The monograph moves the discussion from individual theologians to theological schools with a view to helping consolidate the young field of Comparative Theology It serves two types of readers First the specialist who wants to dig deeper into the two traditions parallelly Second the generalist who may not have the time to become thoroughly familiar with every aspect of Christian Muslim theologies Both readers will come out with a holistic understanding of the development of Christian and Muslim theologies of truth and salvation a holistic understanding that increases the appetite of the former and quenches that of the latter Despite the holistic nature of the monograph attention is duly paid to the specificities of each tradition in a deep and profound manner

Maḥmūd Shaltūt and Islamic Modernism Kate Zebiri, A detailed study of the life and times of Shaykh Mahmud Shaltut an Egyptian scholar and reformer who held the most senior position open to Sunni Muslim scholars that of Rector of the Azhar University Cairo His achievements are placed in the context of a turbulent political period Rethinking Islamic Legal Modernism Ron Shaham,2018-07-10 In Rethinking Islamic Legal Modernism Ron Shaham challenges the common opinion that Islamic legal modernism as represented by Rashid Rida d 1935 is of poor intellectual quality and should not be considered an authentic development within Islamic law The book focuses on the celebrated Sunni jurist Yusuf al Qaradawi b 1926 whom Shaham perceives as a close follower of Rida By studying the coherence of Qaradawi s Wasati theory of ijtihad and the consistency of its application in his legal opinions fatwas Shaham argues that Qaradawi by means of eclecticism and synthesis conducts a bold dialogue with the Islamic juristic heritage and brings it to bear on modern developments in particular the institutional framework of the nation state

An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browers, Charles Kurzman, 2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations

Reform and Modernity in Islam Safdar Ahmed, 2013-05-30 The debate over Islam and modernity tends to be approached from a Eurocentric perspective that presents Western norms as a template for progress against which Islamic societies can be measured This misses the historical development of Muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure Islam within the diverse conditions of modernity Safdar Ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that Muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against Western ideas Rather Ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of Western influence runs through modern Islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender Ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as Muhammad Abduh Qasim Amin and Abdul A la Maududi

The Legitimacy of Use of Force in Public and Islamic International Law Mohammad Z. Sabuj, 2021-06-22 This book investigates the legitimacy deficits of two potentially conflicting legal systems namely Public and Islamic international law It discusses the challenges that Public international law is being presented within the context of its relationship with Islamic international law It explores how best to overcome these challenges through a comparative examination of state practices on the use of force It highlights the legal political legacies that evolved surrounding the claims of the legitimacy of use of force by armed non state actors states and regional organizations This book offers a critical analysis of these legacies in line with the Islamic Shari a law United Nations Charter state practices and customs It concludes that the legitimacy question has reached a vantage point where it cannot be answered either by Islamic or Public international law as a mutually exclusive legal system Instead Public international law must take a coherent approach within the existing legal framework
