the reader's merely human point of view altogether with the sheer force of their presence. Here the author's mastery of the materials of his craft is completely subsumed in the service of this unusual vocation to allow the world's divinities to resume their central place on the scientifically impoverished stage of our denatured and deadened existence. This book is simultaneously utterly unique and full of ancient familiar beings. Harry Polkinhorn      Rolling COMBers John M.
