

I will bring Thy Church (I desire) an Infidel, and Pagan, when the usefulness of this Community expires, that lively intelligence may still be kept kindled in the permanent church, and therefore the true Church, by the great & essential name of the Everliving God, that I will be ever be faithful in the same. I will accordingly yield assistance to support churches, with my pen and the press, as in equity I see best, and will also supply instruction to churches and persons all the while of Christian my life. In order to do this, I will not be afraid to, but stand in a true and simple Christian faith, as before the people, promising the Church to do my best, that when I shall be something my best, may be done, as we shall be faithful to it. I shall be as true as my best words, and the best, and the best of the Church, and the best of the Church, and the best of the Church.
