Garden Cemeteries of New England Trudy Irene Scee,2019-08-22 In 1831 a new entity appeared on the American landscape the garden cemetery Meant to be places where the living could enjoy peace tranquility and beauty as well as to provide a final resting place for the dead the garden cemeteries would forever change the culture of death and burial in the United States The ideal cemetery would become one in which ornamental trees bushes flowers and waterways graced the ever more artistic for those who could afford them monuments to the dead Previous to the 1830s the deceased were buried in church lots in small and soon overcrowded public lots and even occasionally in backyards and fields Graves were often untended weeds and decay soon took over and the frequently used wooden grave markers rotted away Some turned to a movement emerging in Europe in which horticulture was starting to become a factor in cemetery planning at a time in which cemetery planning itself was a novel idea New England was the first region in America to take up the new ideals The first such cemetery Mt Auburn opened in Cambridge Massachusetts in 1831 and Mount Hope Cemetery in Bangor Maine followed in 1834 Today these cemeteries are both beautiful places to visit and important historical sites The author
