Ned Kaufman

Maintaining The Spirit Of Place:

Maintaining the Spirit of Place Harry Launce Garnham,1985 Introduction to Landscape Design John L. Motloch,2000-08-25 Outstanding explorations of design concepts principles and processes This Second Edition of Introduction to Landscape Design offers even broader coverage of the environmental human technological and aesthetic issues associated with landscape design than the first edition Beginning with the way we perceive manage and design the landscape it moves on to explore the forces that influence land design An overview of landscape management planning and design includes a discussion of the roles and integration of the professions involved modes of professional practice and site scale design processes The book explores the ecology of design and the integration of land design decisions into dynamic systems This fully updated new edition Presents landscape design as a synergism of art and science Addresses the interplay between buildings and sites Provides insights into the breadth of people environment relationships Places special emphasis on our growing understanding of interrelationships between the landscape and human decisions A superb introduction for students as well as a useful reference for practicing professionals this book is an excellent guide for anyone who wants to develop a better understanding of landscape design

Maintaining the Spirit of Place Harry Launce Garnham,1985
The Spirit of Place Loren Cruden,1995-09 All of Earth s life is interconnected and sacred An awareness of that sacred relationship opens a direct path to spiritual understanding These powerful techniques join mind will spirit and intuition to the plants animals and minerals sharing our world aligning the practitioner in a deeper relationship with life s sacred matrix

Spirit and Place Christopher Day,2012-06-14 Built environment surrounds us for 90% of our lives but only now are we realising its influence on the environment our health and how we think feel and behave both individually and socially Spirit how to moderate climate to make places of delight and realign social pressures so places both support society and maximise economic viability Thought provoking and easy to understand Christopher Day uses everyday examples to relate his theories to practice and our experience

Spirit of Place Bill Noble,2020-07-07 Delve into this beautiful book You ll come away sharing his passion for the beauty that gardens bring into our lives Sigourney Weaver environmentalist actor trustee of New York Botanical Garden How does an individual garden relate to the larger landscape How does it connect to the natural and cultural environment Does it evoke a sense of place In Spirit of Place Bill Noble a lifelong gardener and the former director of preservation for the Garden Conservancy helps gardeners answer these questions by sharing how they influenced the creation of his garden in Vermont Throughout Noble reveals that a garden is never created in a vacuum but is rather the outcome of an individual s personal vision combined with historical and cultural forces Sumptuously illustrated this thoughtful look at the process of garden making shares insights gleaned over a long career that will inspire you to create a garden rich in context personal vision and spirit

The Art of Ruskin and the Spirit of Place John Dixon Hunt,2020-10-14 English art critic John Ruskin was one of the great visionaries of his time and his influential books and letters on the power of art challenged the foundations of Victorian life He loved looking Sometimes it informed the things he wrote but often it provided access to the many topographical and cultural topics he explored rocks plants birds Turner Venice the Alps In The Art of Ruskin and the Spirit of Place John Dixon Hunt focuses for the first time on what Ruskin drew rather than wrote offering a new perspective on Ruskin s visual imagination Through analysis of more than 150 drawings and sketches many reproduced here he shows how Ruskin s art shaped his writings his thoughts and his sense of place Spirit of Place Susan Owens,2020-09-15 Lyrical and compelling Spirit of Place examines the British landscape as it s portrayed in literature and art English landscape painting is often said to be an eighteenth century invention yet when we look for representations of the countryside in British art and literature we find a story that begins with Old English poetry and winds its way through history all the way up to the present day In Spirit of Place Susan Owens illuminates how the British landscape has been framed reimagined and reshaped by generations of creative thinkers To offer a panoramic view of the countryside throughout history Owens dives into the work of writers and artists from Bede and the Gawain Poet to Thomas Gainsborough Jane Austen J M W Turner and John Constable and from Paul Nash and Barbara Hepworth to Robert Macfarlane Richly illustrated including manuscript pages early maps paintings film stills and photographs Spirit of Place is a compelling narrative of how we have been shown the British landscape

Place, Race, and Story Ned Kaufman,2009-09-11 In Place Race and Story author Ned Kaufman has collected his own essays dedicated to the proposition of giving the next generation of preservationists not only a foundational knowledge of the field of study but more ideas on where they can take it Through both big picture essays considering preservation across time and descriptions of work on specific sites the essays in this collection trace the themes of place race and story in ways that raise questions stimulate discussion and offer a different perspective on these common ideas Including unpublished essays as well as established works by the author Place Race and Story provides a new outline for a progressive preservation movement the revitalized movement for social progress Historic Cities Jeff Cody,Francesco Siravo,2019-07-30 This new volume in the GCI s Readings in Conservation series brings together a selection of seminal writings on the conservation of historic cities This book the eighth in the Getty Conservation Institute s Readings in Conservation series fills a significant gap in the published literature on urban conservation This topic is distinct from both heritage conservation and urban planning despite the recent growth of urbanism worldwide no single volume has presented a comprehensive selection of these important writings until now This anthology profusely illustrated throughout is organized into eight parts covering such subjects as geographic diversity reactions to the transformation of traditional cities reading the historic city the search for contextual continuities the search for values and the challenges of sustainability With more than sixty five texts ranging from early polemics by Victor Hugo and John Ruskin to a generous selection of recent scholarship this book thoroughly addresses regions around the globe Each reading is introduced by short prefatory remarks explaining the rationale for its selection and the principal matters covered The book will serve as an easy reference for administrators professionals teachers and students faced with the day to day challenges confronting the historic city under siege by rampant development
