Mediterranean Policy of the European Community Richard Pomfret, 1986-04-14      Mediterranean Policy of the European Community Richard W. T. Pomfret, 1986      The Foreign Policies of the EU's Mediterranean States and Applicant Countries in the 1990's Theodore Couloumbis, Stelios Stavridis, Thanos Veremis, Neville Waites, 2016-07-27 The book analyses the foreign policies of EU Mediterranean states and applicants in the context of wider EU Mediterranean relations It provides a unique comparative analysis of current members and applicant Mediterranean states in the 1990s at a time when EU processes of enlargement and integration raise fundamental needs to define interests of the EU in its Southern and Eastern relationships      Africa and the European Community After 1992 , 1993-01-01 The economic integration of the European Community EC and its implications for Sub Saharan Africa are examined in this anthology      A Comparative Political Economy of Tunisia and Morocco Gregory White, 2001-07-26 Examines how rising economic integration with Europe impacts Tunisia and Morocco      Routledge Handbook of Mediterranean Politics Richard Gillespie, Frédéric Volpi, 2017-08-14 The Mediterranean space defined by a major sea a large number of littoral countries and to some extent their hinterlands is at the same time an interface between Europe Africa and Asia This brings complex challenges in terms of achieving peace and stability Recently it has received intense international attention through the internal destructiveness and spill over from conflicts primarily those waged in Libya Syria and more remotely Iraq This Handbook provides an overview of the political processes that shape the Mediterranean region in the contemporary context It explores the issues of crucial importance to Mediterranean dynamics through a series of analytical sections that guide the reader towards a comprehensive understanding of the main regional interactions and trends The Handbook explores the complex historical formation of the contemporary Mediterranean geopolitical perspectives issues around peace and conflict the political economy of the region the role of non state actors and social movements societal and cultural trends The wide range of contributions from many of the leading academic experts on the region offers not only insights into the debates and processes that structure each theme but also key pointers for a more general understanding of how distinct political economic social and cultural dynamics interact across the region It will therefore be a key resource for policy makers and students and scholars of Mediterranean politics and international relations      The Economics of European Integration Willem Molle, 2017-03-27 Through four previous editions The Economics of European Integration by Willem Molle has established itself as a preferred textbook for students of the economics of the EU as well as a reliable reference work for those with a professional interest in the European Union Carefully revised this fifth edition takes into account changes in course requirements new statistical information and recent policy developments It includes new material on the ongoing integration of the New Member States and the new forms of association with accession countries in Central and Eastern Europe the implementation of the Monetary Union and the performance of the euro the EU experience as a guide for the economic integration of other regions and for the improvement of world economic governance Written in a clear style and combining original insights with authoritative analysis this new edition will further enhance the book's reputation for providing the ideal introduction to the economics of the European Union     European Integration and the Iberian Economies George N. Yannopoulos,1989-06-18 An examination of the issues raised by the choice of trade strategies for the promotion of industrialization and economic growth by focusing on the experience of the Iberian economies during the process of their phased integration with the European Community

Trade Policies towards Developing Countries Akira Hirata,Ippei Yamazawa,2016-07-27 The 1970s and 1980s saw a radical expansion of manufacturing from developing countries triggering off a new type of trade conflict in world trade The response of industrial countries has been multi fold ranging from protection in sensitive industries to preferences This book takes stock and evaluates the trade policy measures of Japan US and EC towards developing countries with a realistic non dependency approach

France and the Construction of Europe, 1944-2007 Michael Sutton,2011-03 This comprehensive history shows how France coupled the pursuit of power and the furtherance of European integration over a 60 year period from the close of the Second World War to the hesitation caused by the French electorate's referendum rejection of the European Union's constitutional treaty in 2005

The European Union and Turkey Mehmet Ugur,2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this volume draws on the theories of integration credible policy commitments and convergence this book demonstrates that the problematic evolution of the EU Turkey relations has been due to an anchor credibility dilemma neither Turkey's European orientation was a credible commitment nor was the EU's anchoring capacity resolute enough to make policy reversals in Turkey less likely The way out of this dilemma is to re write the existing contracts so that non transparency and the scope for discretion are minimised

The Economic Integration of Europe Richard Pomfret,2021-06-08 Richard Pomfret documents European integration since WWII showing that today's European Union is the product less of master planning than of responses to political and economic challenges Nevertheless the EU emerges as a world historic achievement in cross border cooperation with a bright but challenging future

Europe's Cold War Relations Ulrich Krotz,Kiran Klaus Patel,Federico Romero,2019-10-17 This thought provoking collection analyses the European Community's external relations between 1957 and 1992 with a particular focus upon their broader impact and global significance Reconceptualizing the long arc of the EC's international role from its inception in the 1950s to the end of the Cold War the chapters identify and assess the factors that either supported or impeded Europe's international projection within this period Organized into three parts the authors investigate the EC's relations with key countries and world regions discuss its activities within key policy areas and offer reflections and conclusions on the various arguments that are put forward Each chapter considers the entire period from 1957 1992 to identify and explain overarching trends key decisions and historical conjunctions through scholarly literature key debates and original discussion of each topic or policy issue A final chapter situates the main findings within wider contexts situating the EC in Cold War history Bringing together international history and international relations this project allows for cross disciplinary dialogue and the careful discussion of key concepts analytical approaches and empirical findings Filling a gap in our understanding of the early development of the EC's role as an autonomous global actor this book holds important messages for the modern day as the EU's position in global politics continues to shape the world Economic Development of the Arab Countries Mr. Saïd El-Naggar, 1993-05-15 This volume edited by Said El Naggar is the fifth in a series of seminars dealing with economic issues of particular importance to the Arab countries Held in Manama Bahrain in February 1993 it covered topics pertaining to economic development of the Arab countries in the nineties The seven papers that were presented comprised economic reform in the Arab countries including particularly structural issues investment policies and capital flows inter Arab labor movements environment and development development of human resources and European economic integration An overview of the topics is presented by the seminar moderator Said El Naggar Global Europe Christopher Piening, 1997 Piening head of the European Parliament's interparliamentary relations division for non European countries provides a succinct overview of all the EU's external activities during the 40 some years of its existence and of the impact European integration has come to have far beyond the EU's borders Seven detailed appendices include lists of key trade provisions of the EC treaty Title V and principal commission delegations outside the EU Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR European Trade Policies and Developing Countries L. B. M. Mennes, J. Kol, 1998 This book looks at how patterns of world trade are changing how EEC protectionism affects developing countries how special deals and exceptions are bought in some cases and looks to the future to see how the situation may develop Mapping European Economic Integration A. Verdun, A. Tovias, 2013-11-14 By examining the various policy subfields of European economic integration such as agriculture trade banking economic governance and sustainability this book offers a comprehensive and wide ranging analysis of developments that have taken place in the past five years aimed at exploring the path of economic integration in Europe The Economics of Regional Trading Arrangements Richard W. T. Pomfret, 2001 Regionalism became a major issue in international commercial diplomacy during the 1990s The European Union's 1992 program the formation of NAFTA and attempts to form or strengthen regional trading arrangements in South America southern Africa and Southeast Asia were all viewed as challenges to the nondiscrimination principle that had been the cornerstone of the postwar international trading system This book provides a unified analysis of policies which discriminate among trading partners featuring ample treatments of both history and theory as well as a review of empirical studies Rethinking Security in the Age of Migration Ali Bilgic, 2013-09-02 Migration and especially irregular migration are politically sensitive and highly debated issues in the developed world particularly in Europe This book analyses irregular protection seeking migration in Europe with close attention to sub Saharan migration into the EU from the perspective of emancipatory security theory Some individuals leave their countries because political social and economic structures largely fail to provide protection This book examines how communities respond to migrants who seek protection and security where migration is perceived as a source of insecurity by many in that community The central aim of this critical analysis is to explore ideas and practices which can contribute to replacing the political structures of insecurity with emancipatory structures where individuals both irregular migrants and members of the receiving communities enjoy security together not opposed to each other Drawing on the security dilemma critical approaches to security forced migration and trust the book demonstrates how common life between two groups of individuals can be politically constructed in tandem with limitations risks and possible handicaps of initiating such a construction in world politics Rethinking Security in the Age of Migration will be of interest to students and scholars of migration studies security studies international relations European politics and sociology

The Economics of the European Community A. M. El-Agraa, 1994 The revised edition of this intermediate advanced introduction to EC economics takes into account recent developments in the Single European Market Masstricht Treaty and EC economic policies Sections on micro and macro policies have been rationalized into a general section that emphasizes the dynamic nature of the European Community and its policies policy topics including regulation industry agriculture transport tax EMS regional energy and the environment and provides up to date statistics
