Muslims and Others Jacques Waardenburg, 2008-08-22 Jacques Waardenburg writes about relations between Muslims and adherents of other religions After illuminating various aspects of Islam from an outside point of view in his volume Islam published in 2002 by de Gruyter his second volume changes the perspective The author shows how Muslims perceived non Muslims particularly Christianity and the West but also Judaism and Asian religions in many centuries of religious dialogue and tensions The main focus is on Muslim minorities in Western countries and on religious dialogues of which he provides first hand knowledge through his participation in several important dialogue meetings After 50 years of research and personal involvement Waardenburg aims at a mutual understanding and reconciliation of Islam and other religions particularly Christianity both on an international level as well as on a more local level where old and new Christian and Muslim Europeans live together The European Economy Since 1914 Derek Howard Aldcroft, Steven Morewood, 2013 The European Economy Since 1914 provides an invaluable guide to the major economic changes in both Western and Eastern Europe during the twentieth century Books on Turkey, 2005 War, Violence and Social Justice Masoud

Kamali,2016-03-09 This book analyses the role of war and violence in both its physical and symbolic forms for social work in a time of neoliberal globalisation from a social justice perspective It argues that the consequences of wars in both their old and new forms and the exercise of symbolic violence for the practices of social work at national and global levels have been ignored This work explores the relationship between recent neoliberal and global transformations and their consequences for intensifying new wars and conflicts in non Western countries on the one hand and the increasing symbolic violence against marginalised people with immigrant and non Western background in many Western countries on the other The analytical approach of the book based on the theories of multiple modernities and symbolic violence is unique since no other work has applied such theoretical perspectives for analysing inequalities in relation to the condition of lives of non Western people living in Western and non Western countries This is a necessary contribution for social work education and research since the discipline needs new theoretical perspectives to be able to meet the new challenges raised by recent global transformations and neoliberal globalisation

Medieval Iberian Crusade Fiction and the Mediterranean World David A. Wacks,2019-07-15 Reading crusader fiction against the backdrop of Mediterranean history this book explains how Iberian authors reimagined the idea of crusade through the lens of Iberian geopolitics and social history The crusades transformed Mediterranean history and inaugurated complex engagements between Western Europe the Balkans North Africa and the Middle East in ways that endure to this day Narratives of crusades powerfully shaped European thinking about the East and continue to influence the representation of interactions between Christian and Muslim states in the region The crusade a French idea that gave rise to Iberian North African and Levantine campaigns was very much a Mediterranean phenomenon French and English authors wrote itineraries in the Holy Land chronicles of the crusades and fanciful accounts of Christian knights who championed the Latin Church in the East This study aims to explore the ways in which Iberian authors imagined their role in the culture of crusade both as participants and interpreters of narrative traditions of the crusading world from north of the Pyrenees Forced Conversion in Christianity, Judaism and Islam Mercedes García-Arenal,Yonatan Glazer-Eytan,2019-10-21 Focusing on the Iberian Peninsula but examining related European and Mediterranean contexts as well Forced Conversion in Christianity Judaism and Islam traces how Christians Jews and Muslims grappled with the contradictory phenomenon of faith brought about by constraint and compulsion Forced conversion brought into sharp relief the tensions among the accepted notion of faith as a voluntary act the desire to maintain pure communities and the universal truth claims of radical monotheism Offering a comparative view of an important yet insufficiently studied phenomenon in the history of religions this collection of essays explores the ways in which religion and violence reshaped these three religions and the ways we understand them today

The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 5, Jews in the Medieval Islamic World Phillip I.

Lieberman, 2021-09-02 Volume 5 examines the history of Judaism in the Islamic World from the rise of Islam in the early sixth century to the expulsion of Jews from Spain at the end of the fifteenth. This period witnessed radical transformations both within the Jewish community itself and in the broader contexts in which the Jews found themselves. The rise of Islam had a decisive influence on Jews and Judaism as the conditions of daily life and elite culture shifted throughout the Islamicate world. Islamic conquest and expansion affected the shape of the Jewish community as the center of gravity shifted west to the North African communities and long distance trading opportunities led to the establishment of trading diasporas and flourishing communities as far east as India. By the end of our period many of the communities on the other side of the Mediterranean had come into their own while many of the Jewish communities in the Islamicate world had retreated from their high water mark.

Paul within Paganism Alexander Chantziantoniou, Paula Fredriksen, Stephen L. Young, 2025-11-04 A collaborative project, this work introduces a burgeoning new approach to the study of Paul which contextualizes the apostle within the wider world of ancient Mediterranean religion, so-called paganism. The anthology assembles cutting-edge essays from both senior and rising scholars whose contributions collectively demonstrate how Paul's Jewish religious program is native to the ancient Mediterranean. While providing a go-to introductory resource for teachers and scholars of biblical studies, the essays are pitched to be accessible for students both liberal arts and divinity in order to invite seminarians and church groups to think in religious studies ways about Paul's letters. This volume explores in particular how Paul positively avails himself of ideas and activities constitutive of his own time and place, such as divination, deification, magic, idols, and a host of other social practices traditionally attributed to pagans and so emphatically denied of Jews and Christians. At the same time, it interrogates how features of Paul's letters traditionally categorized as exclusively Jewish, such as his use of scripture, his claims about faith, his ideas about law, and his focus on foreskin, are themselves evidence of Paul's participation in wider Mediterranean ways of promoting engagement with the numinous. Paul operated within paganism even at his supposedly most Jewish points. Just as the Paul within Judaism movement emphasizes Judaism not primarily as the contrast to, but rather as the context for, and content of, Paul's gospel, Paul within Paganism does the same for Paul in relation to wider Greco-Roman culture. Paul and his Judaism emerge here as instances of not exceptions to ancient Mediterranean religion.

Jewish Life in Muslim Libya Harvey E. Goldberg, 1990-05-18 Surveying the history of the Jewish Libyan community contends that the ambiguous relationship of Jews and Muslims in Libya from 1711 to the 1940s is rooted in Islam which sees the Jew either as a creature of the handiwork of the blessed or as a non believer to be humbled This ambivalence was maintained by the Ottoman rule 1835 1911 which regarded the Jews and Muslims as separate and unequal communities In contrast during the Italian occupation 1911 43 Libyan nationalism grew and the Jews were associated with Italy Ch 7 pp 97 122 The Anti Jewish Riots of 1945 contends that the 1945 riot against Tripoli s Jews during the British occupation 1943 45 may be viewed as an expression of the will to restore Muslim sovereignty using the Jew as a representative of the hostile European rule

Islam in the Modern World (RLE Politics of Islam) Denis MacEoin,Ahmed Al-Shahi,2013-07-24 In recent years events in the Islamic world have captured the attention of the West to an unprecedented degree However much of the media coverage of events like the Islamic revolution in Iran has merely reinforced current prejudices and misconceptions about Islam This collection of essays by specialists in a variety of disciplines gives an impressionistic overview of contemporary Islam Different areas of Islamic life are singled out for special attention these include the problem of relations between Islam and the West the role of the Sufi orders and the revival of religious fundamentalism Islam and the feminine Islamic economics and Islamic architecture Geographically the essays cover a wide area ranging over Sudan Turkey Iran Egypt and Saudi Arabia Each discussion should appeal to the layman and specialist alike and collectively they bring together a comprehensive range of material not often covered in one volume Above all they cut across the stereotypes of Islam found in the popular media to reveal facets of a complex living tradition often unsuspected in the West First published in 1983
