Architecture makes a major contribution to the study of architectural history in a new global context From Vernacular to World Heritage Letizia Dipasquale, Saverio Mecca, Mariana Correia, 2020 This publication brings together the results of the project 3DPAST Living and virtual visiting European World Heritage co funded by the Creative Europe EU programme The research highlighted the exceptional character and quality of living in vernacular dwellings found in World Heritage sites This was possible by seizing the cultural space of European vernacular heritage located in Pico island Portugal Cuenca town Spain Pienza Italy Old Rauma Finland Transylvania Romania Berat Gjirokastra Albania Potos Greece and Upper Svaneti Georgia New digital realities grant the possibility to visit and to appreciate those places to non travelling audiences who lack the opportunity to experience this unique heritage in situ Creative potential is highlighted in 3D models and digital visualisations which associate outstanding local knowledge with the vernacular expression of World Heritage Cuban Modernism Victor Deupi, Jean-Francois Lejeune, 2021-02-08 In the 20th century modern architecture thrived in Cuba and a wealth of buildings was realized prior to the revolution 1959 and in its wake The designs comprise luxurious nightclubs and stylish hotels sports facilities elegant private homes and apartment complexes Drawing on the vernacular their architects defined a way to be modern and Cuban at the same time creating an architecture oscillating between tradition and avantgarde Audacious concrete shells curving ramps elegant brises soleils and a fluidity of interior and exterior spaces are characteristic of an airy often colorful architecture well suited to life in the tropics New photographs and drawings were specially prepared for this publication A biographical survey portraits the 40 most important Cuban architects of the era Region Simon Richards, Robert Schmidt III, Cagri Sanliturk, Falli Palaiologou, 2023-07-28 This book explores how the concept of region has evolved over time and shaped architectural culture and practice It questions what the words region and regional mean for architecture cities and landscapes past and present and speculates on the forms they might take in the future Region is explored in many thematic guises as a real geographical site of evolving socio economic activity as a mythical locus of enduring value as a gatekeeper of indigenous crafts and vernacular techniques as a site of architectural and artistic imagination as a repository of contested conflicted and mobile identities The contributing chapters take these themes from the theoretical and literary page through to architectural and urban practice and from the scale of the domestic hearth through to the ocean archipelago and international law enriching the long standing trope of viewing architectural regionalism purely as a matter of style Curated into four key thematic areas Theorised Regions Contested Regions Heritage Regions and Future Regions the book incorporates the values concerns and approaches of a truly diverse international community of scholars curators and practitioners as well as the design work of international students tasked to explore what region means to them Émigré Cultures in Design and Architecture Alison J. Clarke, Elana Shapira, 2017-11-02 This new volume addresses the lasting contribution made by Central European migr designers to twentieth century American design and architecture The contributors examine how oppositional stances in debates concerning consumption and

modernism's social agendas taken by designers such as Felix Augenfled Joseph Binder Josef Frank Paul T Frankl Frederick Kiesler Richard Neutra and R M Schindler in Europe prefigured their later adoption or rejection by American culture They argue that migrants and refugees from fascist Europe such as Gyrgy Kepes Paul L szl Victor Papanek Bernard Rudofsky Xanti Schawinsky and Eva Zeisel drew on the particular experiences of their home countries and networks of migrant and exiled designers in the United States to develop a humanist progressive and socially inclusive design culture which continues to influence design practice today Abdelkébir Khatibi Jane Hiddleston, Khalid Lyamlahy, 2020 Abdelk bir Khatibi is one of the most important voices to emerge from North Africa in postcolonial studies This book is the first to offer a thoroughgoing analysis in English of all aspects of his multifaceted thought as it ranges from Moroccan politics to Arabic calligraphy and from decolonisation to interculturality Culture and Conflict in Palestine/Israel Tamir Sorek, 2021-12-26 While the scholarly study of culture as a politically contested sphere in Palestine Israel has become an established field over the past two decades this volume highlights some particular understudied aspects of it the relations between Arab identity Mizrahi identity and Israeli nationalism the nightclub scene as a field of encounter appropriation and exclusion an analysis of the institutional and political conditions of Palestinian cinema the implications of the intersectional relationship between gender ethnicity and national identity in the field of popular culture and the concrete relations between particular aesthetic forms and symbolic power The authors come from diverse disciplines including anthropology architecture ethnomusicology history sociology and political science The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Digital Modernism Heritage Lexicon Cristiana Bartolomei, Alfonso Ippolito, Simone Helena Tanoue Vizioli, 2021-08-11 The book investigates the theme of Modernism 1920 1960 and its epigones as an integral part of tangible and intangible cultural heritage which contains the result of a whole range of disciplines whose aim is to identify document and preserve the memory of the past and the value of the future Including several chapters it contains research results relating to cultural heritage more specifically Modernism and current digital technologies This makes it possible to record and evaluate the changes that both undergo the first one from a material point of view the second one from the research point of view which integrates the traditional approach with an innovative one The purpose of the publication is to show the most recent studies on the modernist lexicon 100 years after its birth moving through different fields of cultural heritage from different forms of art to architecture from design to engineering from literature to history representation and restoration The book appeals to scholars and professionals who are involved in the process of understanding reading and comprehension the transformation that the places have undergone within the period under examination It will certainly foster the international exchange of knowledge that characterized Modernism Spain David Cohn, 2024-11-18 An investigation of the influences and evolution of modern Spain's underappreciated but foundational architecture Spain's remarkable twentieth century architecture evolved against a turbulent background of revolution civil war dictatorship and transition to democracy Architecture played a key role in Spain's struggle out of poverty and isolation and its search for identity in the modern world This book examines Spanish architecture from the roots of Modernism in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the present analyzing significant figures and their works in relation to their political social and cultural contexts as well as their contributions to architecture as a whole From the austere local Modernism of the 1920s the influence of international trends in the 30s the renewed Organicist Modernism of the 50s and 60s to the flourishing public architecture of the late twentieth century and beyond Spain provides a penetrating account of the country's rich and varied built environment

Makers of Modern Architecture Martin Filler, 2007-07-17 Everyone knows what modern architecture looks like but few understand how this revolutionary new form of building emerged little more than a century ago or what its aesthetic social even spiritual aspirations were Through illuminating studies of the leading men and women who forever changed our built environment veteran architecture critic Martin Filler offers fresh insights into this unprecedented cultural transformation From Louis Sullivan father of the skyscraper to Frank Gehry magician of post millennial museum Filler emphasizes how their force of personality has had a decisive effect on everything from how we inhabit our homes to how we shape our cities Why was the sudden shift in architectural fashion that wrecked the career of the Scottish designer Charles Rennie Mackintosh not enough to destroy the indomitable spirit of Frank Lloyd Wright who rose from adversity to become America's greatest architect Why was Philip Johnson dean of American architecture during the 1980s so haunted by the superior talent of this less fortunate contemporary Louis Kahn that he could barely utter his name even at the peak of his own success How did Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's dictum Less is more give way to Robert Venturi's Less is a bore Surveying such current urban design sagas as the reconstruction of Ground Zero and the reunification of Berlin Filler also trains his sharp eye on some of the biggest names in architecture today puncturing more than one overinflated reputation while identifying the true masters who are now building for the ages

A Lebanese Perspective Simone Kosremelli, Sylvia Shorto, 2011 For the past 30 years Simone Kosremelli has produced an architecture known for its character and its outstanding quality Volumetrically complex internally and visually coherent externally her work is rooted in the Lebanese vernacular but it is not constrained by the past Rather her designs incorporate vernacular elements in modern arrangements encouraging the natural continuation of a local architectural vocabulary and the preservation of time honoured building techniques Kosremelli also designs simple yet carefully detailed interiors that combine hints of the past with modern materials for a contemporary outlook This the first monograph devoted to her firm's work offers a beautifully illustrated tour through a selection of her most exceptional projects

Cities' Identity Through Architecture and Arts Nabil Mohareb, Alessio Cardaci, Sreetheran Maruthaveeran, Nicola Cavalagli, 2022-07-29 This book presents works that book offer a novel interpretation of how today's urban problems can be tackled through the efficient use of resources and the modeling of solutions to best utilize the available features of cities The second edition of this book compiles several research papers that present a detailed discussion of the formation and identification of cities and illustrate different case studies that deal with historical areas and buildings as part of preserving cities vocabularies and self identities By unfolding a stimulating variety of topics in relation to the conservation of culture and identity the book provides insights into planners and decision makers aiding them in their contributions to the implementation of the 2030 Sustainable Development goals with reference to heritage preservation

Sanctioning Modernism Vladimir Kulic,Timothy Parker,Monica Penick,2014-06-01 In the decades following World War II modern architecture spread around the globe alongside increased modernization urbanization and postwar reconstruction and it eventually won widespread acceptance But as the limitations of conventional conceptions of modernism became apparent modern architecture has come under increasing criticism In this collection of essays experienced and emerging scholars take a fresh look at postwar modern architecture by asking what it meant to be modern what role modern architecture played in constructing modern identities and who sanctioned or was sanctioned by modernism in architecture This volume presents focused case studies of modern architecture in three realms political religious and domestic that address our very essence as human beings Several essays explore developments in Czechoslovakia Romania and Yugoslavia and document a modernist design culture that crossed political barriers such as the Iron Curtain more readily than previously imagined Other essays investigate various efforts to reconcile the concerns of modernist architects with the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church and other Christian institutions And a final group of essays looks at postwar homebuilding in the United States and demonstrates how malleable and contested the image of the American home was in the mid twentieth century These inquiries show the limits of canonical views of modern architecture and reveal instead how civic institutions ecclesiastical traditions individual consumers and others sought to sanction the forms and ideas of modern architecture in the service of their respective claims or desires to be modern

Interurban Knowledge Exchange in Southern and Eastern Europe, 1870-1950 Eszter Gantner,Heidi Hein-Kircher,Oliver Hochadel,2020-10-22 Around 1900 cities in Southern and Eastern Europe were persistently labeled backward and delayed Allegedly they had no alternative but to follow the role model of the metropolises of London Paris or Vienna This edited volume fundamentally questions this assumption It shows that cities as diverse as Barcelona Berdyansk Budapest Lviv Milan Moscow Prague Warsaw and Zagreb pursued their own agendas of modernization In order to solve their pressing problems with respect to urban planning and public health they searched for best practices abroad The solutions they gleaned from other cities were eclectic to fit the specific needs of a given urban space and were thus often innovative This applied urban knowledge was generated through interurban networks and multi directional exchanges Yet in the period around 1900 this transnational municipalism often clashed with the forging of urban and national identities highlighting the tensions between the universal and the local This interurban perspective helps to overcome nationalist perspectives in historiography as well as outdated notions of center and periphery This volume will appeal to scholars from a large number of disciplines including urban historians historians of Eastern and Southern Europe historians of science and medicine and scholars interested in transnational connections
