Explorations in National Cinemas Janet Staiger,Ben Lawton,1977 First Published in 1977 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Mother Jones Magazine, 1985-08 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues American Cinema of the 1960s Barry Keith Grant,2008 This book examines a range of films that characterized the decade including Hollywood movies documentaries and the independent and experimental films Medium Hot Hito Steyerl,2025-05-20 Hito Steyerl is one of the most celebrated artists of our time Her work both as an artist and a writer has consistently challenged the political boundaries between art and technology In this new collection of groundbreaking essays she explores how AI the use of large language models and the algorithmic creation of imagery transform our understanding of the world She argues that such practices cannot be divorced from the economic and political conditions of the times Medium Hot is a collection of scintillating meditations on the limits of art and technology the essential handbook for the present conjuncture The pieces here probe the manufacture and distribution of images in the age of AI and climate change She asks whether art can be made not only by machines but for machines She argues against the production of images that heat up the planet disfranchise workers and fuel the arms trade and questions whether such creations can even be called art In an era of such rapid change Steyerl does vital work investigating whether machine learning will infiltrate every aspect of our lives and what that means for the future The Hollywood Renaissance Yannis Tzioumakis,Peter Krämer,2018-06-28 In December 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and proudly declared that Hollywood cinema was undergoing a renaissance For the next few years a wide range of formally and thematically challenging films were produced at the very centre of the American film industry often but by no means always combining success at the box office with huge critical acclaim both then and later This collection brings together acknowledged experts on American cinema to examine thirteen key films from the years 1966 to 1974 starting with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf a major studio release which was in effect exempted from Hollywood s Production Code and thus helped to liberate American filmmaking from self censorship Long standing taboos to do with sex violence race relations drugs politics religion and much else could now be broken often in conjunction with extensive stylistic experimentation Whereas most previous scholarship has examined these developments through the prism of auteurism with its tight focus on film directors and their oeuvres the contributors to this collection also carefully examine production histories and processes In doing so they pay particular attention to the economic underpinnings and collaborative nature of filmmaking the influence of European art cinema as well as of exploitation experimental and underground films and the connections between cinema and other media notably publishing music and theatre Several chapters show how the innovations of the Hollywood Renaissance relate to further changes in American cinema from the mid 1970s onwards
