Waiting to Inhale Akwasi Owusu-Bempah, Tahira Rehmatullah, 2023-04-11 The roots of a racial reckoning through the lens of cannabis From the start the War on Drugs targeted Black Brown and Indigenous Americans already disadvantaged by a system stacked against them Even now as white Americans who largely escaped the fire capitalize on the legalization movement and a booming cannabis industry their less fortunate peers continue to suffer the consequences of the systemic racism in policing and failed drug policy that fueled the original crisis In Waiting to Inhale Akwasi Owusu Bempah and Tahira Rehmatullah issue a powerful call for a racial reckoning and provide a roadmap to redress this deep and abiding injustice Waiting to Inhale illuminates the stories of those on the front lines of the War on Drugs the individuals and communities disproportionately harmed sometimes seemingly beyond repair the official and social forces ranged against them and the victims legal and political activists and cannabis entrepreneurs who are fighting back As attitudes toward cannabis are shifting now is the opportune time Owusu Bempah and Rehmatullah submit to expunge cannabis convictions and make a place in the burgeoning legal cannabis market for Black and other underrepresented groups who have borne the brunt of harsh cannabis laws A powerful indictment of one of the worst social and political failures in the nation's history Waiting to Inhale offers an equally powerful vision of the possibility of redemption Communities can be rebuilt and racist policies must be overturned in order to give way to a new era of justice
