Gratchev, Howard Mancing, 2017-11-06 This book is a unique scholarly attempt to examine Don Quixote from multiple angles to see how the reaccentuation of the world's greatest literary hero takes place in film theatre and literature To accomplish this task eighteen scholars from the USA Canada Spain and Great Britain have come together and each of them has brought his/her unique perspective to the subject For the first time Don Quixote is discussed from the point of reaccentuation i.e. having in mind one of the key Bakhtinian concepts that will serve as a theoretical framework A primary objective was therefore to articulate relying on the concept of reaccentuation that the history of the novel has benefited enormously from the reaccentuation of Don Quixote helping us to shape countless iconic novels from the eighteenth century and to see how Cervantes's title character has been reinterpreted to suit the needs of a variety of cultures across time and space Thomas Mann: Meerfahrt mit Don Quijote - Die Redlichkeit nostalgischer Verklärung Tobias Krüger, 2018 Stuttgarter Kolloquium zur Historischen Geographie des Altertums, 7, 1999 Eckart Olshausen, Holger Sonnabend, 2002 Die Beiträge des 7. "Don Quixote" and the Poetics of the Novel Felix Martinez-Bonati, 2019-05-15 In response to the classic question whether Don Quixote is true to life Felix Martinez Bonati defines it as an unrealistic allegory of realism He maintains that Cervantes's novel presents an ironized universe of literature that plays with the contradictions of traditional wisdom and the variety and limitations of literary forms including those of verisimilitude Drawing on Aristotle's Poetics on the idealist and romantic traditions that originate in Kant Schiller Schelling Hegel and Coleridge and on contemporary critical theory Martinez Bonati describes the stylistic matrix of Don Quixote as a combination of semirealism romance fantasy and comedy He provides fresh insights into the character of Cervantes's imagination the composition and unity of Don Quixote and its generic structure rhetorical force and metafictional intentionality

Cervantes' Don Quixote Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria, 2010-04-10 This casebook gathers a collection of ambitious essays about both parts of the novel 1605 and 1615 and also provides a general introduction and a bibliography The essays range from Ramon Menendez Pidal's seminal study of how Cervantes dealt with chivalric literature to Erich Auerbach's polemical study of Don Quixote as essentially a comic book by studying its mixture of styles and include Leo Spitzer's masterful probe into the essential ambiguity of the novel through minute linguistic analysis of Cervantes prose The book includes pieces by other major Cervantes scholars such as Manuel Duran and Edward C Riley as well as younger scholars like Georgina Dopico Black All these essays ultimately seek to discover that which is peculiarly Cervantine in Don Quixote and why it is considered to be the first modern novel

The Knights of

Modernism Branko Vraneš, 2021-06-07 According to the customary literary historical and theoretical notion the fact that the first modern novel represents a parody or travesty of the chivalric ideal merits no particular attention Failing to become attuned to the real role of the chivalric ideal at the beginning of the era of the modern novel commentators missed the chance to adequately review the role of chivalry at the end of that period The modern novel did not only begin but also ended with a travesty of the chivalric ideal The deep need of a significant number of modernist writers to measure their own time according to the ideals of the high and late Middle Ages cannot therefore be explained by a set of literary historical spiritual historical or social circumstances The predilection of a range of twentieth century novelists for a distant feudal past suggests that there exists a fundamental poetic connection between the modern or at least the modernist novel and the ideals of chivalry
